HOUSE JOURNAL

SESSION 1977

FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 12, 1977

This day, in accordance with the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and G.S. 120-11.1, which fixes the date for the meeting of the General Assembly of North Carolina, the members of the House of Representatives assemble in the House Chamber of the State Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh at 12:00 noon and are called to order by the Honorable Thad Eure, Secretary of State.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Albert G. Edwards, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, North Carolina.

"O Great and Good and Loving God, as we stand before Thee, may there be in our lives that wonderful emotion of wonder. For the veterans in the House, may it be a wonder engendered by the realization that in their home district there are people who so love and trust them that they have given them another term of office. For the rookies, may the wonder come from seeing and surveying, and being able to say, I made it. I made it.

"But grant also, O God, that mingled with the wonder there may be the feeling of awe; the feeling created by the realization that we are assembled in no ordinary place but in a place that is holy; a place distinct and separate from all other places, and set apart for particular purpose and peculiar service to the citizens of North Carolina. By strength of character and by noble conduct may these men and women maintain and enhance the distinctiveness of this chamber.

"We pray for the Speaker of the House that he may receive from Thee wisdom and strength sufficient for his days and duties; and we pray for those he will lead; that not blindly but purposefully, honestly, thoughtfully and intelligently they will follow.

"Our prayer is offered in the name of Jesus who said, 'I am the light of the world, he that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.' Amen."

The roll is called and all of the Members-elect answer when their names are called.

The one hundred twenty Members-elect who are present, appear with proper certificates of election, take and subscribe to the following oath of office, which is administered by the Honorable Susie Sharp, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

OATH FOR MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

"I do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States; and,

"I do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and,

"I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully discharge my duties as a Member of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, to the best of my skill and ability, so help me, God."

One hundred twenty Members having answered the roll call, the Secretary of State declares a quorum is present.

The Secretary of State announces that the first order of business is the election of a Speaker and declares that nominations are in order.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Representative Gamble places in nomination the name of Representative Carl J. Stewart, Jr., of Gaston County for Speaker of the 1977 House of Representatives.

"Mr. Secretary, Ladies and Gentlemen.

"Today is an auspicious occasion for North Carolinians gathered in these halls and across the State. We are here to organize ourselves and to begin the job to which we were elected. It is my privilege to nominate a distinguished North Carolinian for Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives.

"My nominee was born and reared in Gaston County. You must know that anyone who came up in Gaston County in the 30's knows the value of a dollar and of a job. His early life was one of work, scholarly achievements and leadership recognition. He is proud of winning a Firestone Scholarship that allowed him to attend Duke University where he received both Baccalaureate and Law Degrees. He graduated with honors, earned a Phi Beta Kappa Key — which he doesn't wear, gained recognition as a champion collegiate debater, was elected President of the Student Body and later President of the Duke Alumni Association.

"He returned to Gastonia to open a law office and involve himself in the religious, civic, professional, fraternal and political affairs of the county he loves. Whether it was teaching in Sunday school or college, heading up the United Fund, organizing a new Optimist Club, working with children, or practicing law he did it with zeal and success — utilizing one of his many talents — the ability to work with people.

"I know his parents are listening and are proud of their son on this occasion. In 1964 he married Kathy Wesson — a charming lady — and they now have three children: Lisa (Kathryn Elizabeth), Julie (Julia Ann), and Rome (Carl, III).

"His interest in politics and the Democratic Party came early; and by the age of 29 he was elected to the North Carolina House from the Gaston-Lincoln District. He has been elected for six consecutive terms leading the ticket on each occasion.

"His period of service in the North Carolina General Assembly has been one of accomplishment and maturity of leadership qualities. It is this period of service that is the distillation process that produces our leaders and we recognize those who sit among us today. Essentially this process is the Democratic process wherein the person is watched by the public, studied by his peers, and voted upon by his colleagues.

"What is important is that you have seen this candidate's character, dedication, and abilities appear in his job performance. Whether it has been as Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, as a member of the Legislative Research Commission, representing the North Carolina General Assembly on the Southern Regional Education Board, on the floor as a debater, or just carrying his share of the work in a committee, he has performed well and as a gentleman.

"Ladies and Gentlemen, I should tell you I could not nominate someone to this important office without having satisfied myself about that person on more fundamental issues — political and philosophical. Politically I know he is interested in the total state and knows that those who disseminate hate and promote regional jealousy are doing a disservice to our State. He recognizes the dangers in the growth of bureaucracy and its inherent insatiable appetite to regulate and tax. He believes the individual does matter; that the individual citizen should have open access to what his government is about. He feels that our laws should require speedy trials to make our system of justice effective. He is prepared to guard and cultivate our civil liberties as guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. He knows that laws are to stabilize human expectations and should not be corrupted for base purposes.

"Philosophically, we must agree as Protagoras and Socrates agreed that political and human virtues are the same; that the main virtues are wisdom, self-control, courage, justice, and piety. I am convinced that with these virtues this candidate will serve this General Assembly and the citizens of North Carolina well.

"Therefore, I place in nomination for Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives an outstanding Legislator and Statesman, a man fitted for these times, the Honorable Carl J. Stewart, Jr.

"Thank you."

The nomination is seconded by Representative Ronald Mason.

"Mr. Secretary, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen, Members of the House.

"It is an honor and privilege to second the nomination of Carl Stewart for Speaker of the House.

"I will not attempt to add to the glowing words of praise already spoken, nor even to review again the well known biography of Carl Stewart. But I would like to point out, for the first termers, if no others, that in the five terms Carl has served he has chaired committees on Banks and Banking, on Water and Air Resources, and on Appropriations. He has served as a member of twenty-two of the thirty odd standing committees of this body. His knowledge of the workings of this House and of State Government is unsurpassed. Further, he has an unquenched interest in the people and their problems, all over this great State.

"Carl Stewart is from Gaston County — the Piedmont — yet, I have heard him talk to the fisherman, the farmer, the businessman in the east, with true concern and interest. I know, first hand, of his help with our ports, the Cape Lookout National Seashore Park, the Wanchese Harbour, and yes, with the Med School at East Carolina. Carl Stewart is a North Carolinian — he does not have a regional view, but rather, an abiding ambition for all of North Carolina.

"All of us know the qualities of Carl Stewart, for he has made himself available to all of us in his quest of the Speakership. We know he was endowed with God-given talents. We know he, by constant diligence, has made them grow and multiply into the abilities he desired. And in the direction his life has taken, I see about him an aura of destiny, if you will, of greatness — for with his talents and God's watchcare of his life, he is a young man without limit.

"We are of one purpose today. To do honor to one of our own. It is a pleasant duty to participate in the awarding of honor to a good friend and colleague. In electing Carl Stewart as Speaker, we are acknowledging respect for his ability and confidence in his powers of leadership — for we know he has combined talent, ambition, and energies to achieve this worthy goal.

"Again, it is a great honor and privilege to second the nomination of Carl Jerome Stewart, Jr. for Speaker of the House."

The nomination is also seconded by Representative Margaret Tennille.

"Mr. Secretary, Honorable Justices, Members of the House of Representatives.

"As we convene in this chamber today, one of our first tasks is to elect our Speaker and transfer to him the gavel of leadership. This gavel, symbolic of the authority vested in him by this body, must be used with great care. It will be his duty to set the pace for the rest of us to follow.

"Carl Stewart brings qualities of leadership to the respected and honored position of Speaker of the House. His experience and ability, combined with a warmth and compassion for all of our citizens, will assure us that he will guide legislation beneficial to the citizens of North Carolina to ratification and legislation beneficial to only a few to a well deserved end.

"His innate sense of fairness will ensure every member of this House an equal opportunity to be heard on all issues. His respect and love for the traditions of this body will guarantee that the daily sessions will be presided over with dignity and decorum.

"In short, as he wields the gavel over this 1977-78 Session of the North Carolina House of Representatives, you can be sure that it will be done with fairness, integrity, intelligence and initiative.

"With pride and pleasure, I second the nomination of Carl J. Stewart, Jr. for Speaker of the House."

The nomination is also seconded by Representative Gordon Greenwood.

"Mr. Chairman, Distinguished Visitors and Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House.

"It is an honor and privilege to have the opportunity to second the nomination of my good friend Carl Stewart as Speaker of the House for 1977.

"Carl Stewart is a man who has excelled in whatever attempted and his range of interests has been very broad. He has excelled in many fields — as a leader in his community in areas that meant a better life for those less fortunate than himself, in his church where he has performed important work with the young people, and in the General Assembly.

"When he joined the Appropriations Committee in 1967 as a Freshman, it was soon apparent to all of us that he was a young man on the move. He impressed everyone with his friendliness, his ability to assimilate information and to relate it in providing services for the people of North Carolina, and his desire to be of service.

"In order to provide him with an opportunity to utilize his great energy and ability, he was assigned to a subcommittee on Appropriations and as a member of that group he did an excellent job.

"Based on my experience with Carl during the 1967 Session I decided he was a man who would be heard from during later sessions of the General Assembly. Time has proved this to be correct. It has been my pleasure to be associated with him in several areas other than state government.

"As I have pointed out, our incoming Speaker has been successful in a variety of fields and undertakings. The returning House members are already aware of this and the freshmen will soon learn that Carl is intelligent, articulate, approachable, sensitive to the needs of others, is a good listener, and responsive as well as responsible.

"When the Session is history and you have said goodbye to Raleigh, you will remember Carl Stewart for many things, but my guess is that you will remember him best as a friend."

The nomination is also seconded by Representative Nancy Chase.

"Mr. Secretary, Justices, Judges, and Distinguished Guests.

"I am not an expert on anything. However, I do feel that I am a pretty good analyst of people. Let me share a few observations with you.

"I did not know Carl until he came to the Legislature some ten years ago. After working with him for a short time, I soon saw some outstanding characteristics of real leadership — among which is honesty and integrity — which few could surpass — expertise in many areas which he willingly shared with those of us who asked for counsel and advice. He has an open door policy and was never too busy to talk to anyone who stopped in to see him. He demonstrated a sense of humor which always made it easier to discuss a problem with him.

"I could go on and on — but let me just say this — the House of Representatives has been indeed fortunate through the years to have outstanding men as Speakers of the House and I am confident that Carl Stewart will add another strong link to that chain.

"I see this Session as being a long and a hardworking Session — but if each of us will assume our responsibilities with the same enthusiasm and dedication which I am sure Carl will, the citizens of North Carolina will accept this 1977 Session as one of the most productive of any ever held.

"I hope that each of us will pledge to do just that.

"Again, it is an honor for me to second the nomination of Carl Stewart as our Speaker."

There being no further nominations, the Secretary of State declares the nominations closed and requests that the roll of the House be called. The following members vote for Representative Stewart: Representatives Adams, Auman, Baker, Barbee, Barker, Beard, Bell, Bissell, Brennan, Bright, Brubaker, Bumgardner, Bundy, Campbell, Chapin, Chase, Church, Clarke, Collins, Cook, Creech, Cullipher, Davenport, DeBruhl, DeRamus, Diamont, Dorsey, Duncan, Easterling, Economos, Edwards, Ellis, Enloe, Erwin, Ezzell, Falls, Farmer, Foster, Frye, Fulcher, Gamble, Gardner, Gentry, Gilmore, Grady, Gregory, Greenwood, Griffin, Hairston, Hall, Fletcher Harris, W. S. Harris, Helms, Hightower, Holmes, Holroyd, B. Holt, Charles Holt, Hunt, Hunter, Hurst, Huskins, Hux, James, Jernigan, Joseph Johnson, Joy Johnson, Jones, Kaplan, Lachot, Lambeth, Lilley, Locklear, Lutz, McMillan, Martin, Mason, Messer, Michaux, Miller, Morgan, Morris, Nash, Nesbitt, Nye, Parnell, Pickler, Plyler, Poovey, Pugh, Quinn, Ramsey, Ray, Revelle, Rhodes, Rountree, Sawyer, Schwartz, Setzer, Seymour, Short, Neal Smith, Ned Smith, Spoon, Tally, Taylor, Tennille, Thomas, Tison, Tyson, Varner, Ward, Watkins, Webb, Eugene White, Stanford White, Wiseman, Woodard, and Wright.

Mr. Stewart having received all the votes is declared Speaker.

The Speaker, escorted to the Chair by Representatives Barker, Enloe, Erwin, Helms, Jernigan and Wright, takes and subscribes to the following oath of office administered by the Honorable Earl Vaughn, Judge of the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

"I, Carl J. Stewart, Jr., do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States; and,

"I do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and,

"I do solemnly swear that I will well and truly execute the duties of the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my skill and ability, according to law; so help me God."

The Speaker, Mr. Stewart, approaches the dais and makes the following remarks:

"Mr. Secretary, Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals, Members of the Council of State, My Fellow Legislators and Distinguished Guests.

"First, and most important, I thank you with all my heart for this high honor which you give to me.

"There have been those who have preceded me and there will be those who follow me, far more qualified and with far greater capacity to serve you in this position. But there never has been one nor will there ever be one quite as grateful to you as I am at this very moment.

"Less than a month ago, I stood before all but six of you and said that the next Session of the General Assembly will deal with more significant legislation than any two previous Sessions combined. While to many that may have seemed an overstatement, the reasons for it are real and complex.

"The political structure of the United States has changed for all time. The South will never again be an economic wasteland. Not since Jefferson and Madison have Southerners and Southern States become so influential. That influence will never again be lost. The question is, for what purpose and to what ends will that influence be applied.

"The rhythm of history has brought North Carolina to a point where we project a curious image to our neighbors in the South and in the Nation. On the one hand we are remembered from the forties, fifties, and early sixties as the most progressive Southern State — setting national standards in higher education, initiating scientific, technical and industrial research, taking bold steps in elementary and secondary education, promoting an aggressive system of community colleges, coping quietly and effectively with desegregation, expanding health care, and running a scandal free state government.

"Today, even with important additional accomplishments to our credit, our willingness to confront new and frustrating problems of State Government vigorously and with conviction is, at least, ambivalent.

1. We rank fifty among fifty states in average industrial wages.

2. The rejection rate among our young men, black and white, for military service, is one of the nation's highest.

3. The incidence of syphilis and gonorrhea in our State reported by the Division of Health Services is appalling.

4. Of 714,000 elderly North Carolina citizens, one third are below the poverty level. North Carolina spends less per capita for its elderly than almost any other Southern State.

5. 983,000 North Carolina adults, nearly one million, two thirds of them white, cannot read well enough to fill out a job application form or take a written driver license test.

6. A large percentage of our high school graduates cannot read at the eighth grade level.

7. Many of our mental health institutions, including mental illness and mental retardation, do not meet minimum federal standards.

8. Evidence of under nutrition is great. Only 44 counties have a nutrition program. Only 7 counties provided food stamps to more than fifty per cent of eligible persons in the spring of 1976.

9. The scope of Medicare is too narrowly drawn. In 1975 North Carolina received 324 million dollars for Medicaid. Based on the number of poverty level people in the State, the payment of Federal Funds should have been 532 million dollars, a deficit of 208 million dollars of money intended for the health care of poor people, but which they never received.

10. Only three states in the Southeast exceed North Carolina in its rate of infant mortality.

"I delineate these shortcomings not to shame you or to plunge us all into self pity because an equally impressive list of achievements can be easily articulated and usually is on these occasions. But I wanted to talk to you today honestly about the responsibility we must bear in part for our State and the opportunity which lies before us during the coming term, even if it means not rushing headlong to adjournment.

"Notice that I haven't even mentioned other issues. The insurance imbroglio, utility rates, tax reform, government reorganization, prisons, youth services and a host of proposed constitutional amendments. All of these matters will be before us within weeks.

"But I believe that the year has come when the right combination of forces are conjoined to permit North Carolina to seize the initiative and again show the way. The continuing greatness of a state depends upon its ability to reshape its institutions, to revise its policies, and to reformulate its ideas in light of new conditions. As Arnold Toynbee said, the solutions of the past are simply not good enough to solve the problems of the present.

"We are going to do our part in the House. Before the day is over all committee chairmanships and all committee assignments will be announced. In addition, as the Session progresses, I hope you will permit me from time to time, in a formal way, to suggest appropriate legislative responses to the needs of a changing North Carolina. Swift and liberating change is essential to the salvation of the South and to the salvation of this State.

"Our primary function is to be prepared immediately to receive and to generate measures designed to deal forthrightly and effectively with the problems of our own State and a growing region. By 1980, this State will be the tenth largest in the Nation, surpassing Massachusetts. We have been running behind, and we are going to catch up.

"The challenge is great, but the opportunities are absolutely intoxicating. And believe it or not, we can have fun doing it. I want to bring joy back to this House—to share with you the enthusiasm which comes with progress and the pride which comes from a job well done — because I believe with Theodore Roosevelt that what a man does for himself dies with him, but what he does for others lives long after he is gone. Today we begin to earn our per diem. During the coming months, let's give the people of North Carolina the best bargain they ever had.

"Thank you."

The following charge is made to the Committee chairman by the Speaker:

"Your appointments to chair the committees of the House represent an acknowledgement of the hard work and dedicated service that each of you has given to the people of North Carolina. It is an honor, a recognition, an accomplishment, but even more than this, it is a responsibility to the people of this State. You are the leaders of the committees through which all the legislation in the House will pass. Your leadership will undoubtedly determine the course of the State for not only the years of this session but also for many years to come.

"With your appointment as chairmen of these major committees also comes a recognition of your talents.

"I have weighed carefully the awesome demands which will be placed on each of you in the coming session, as you carry out the responsibilities of your chairmanship.

"Each of you has unique talents which I have tried to match with the peculiar needs of each committee.

"Your role is a vital one — one which requires a business like approach to the matters before you — tempered with an understanding of the helpful function of full but orderly debate. Your role requires that you consider the impact and effect of your exercise of the gavel — how it affects the issue at hand and whether it promotes a fair hearing to divergent views — some of which you may not agree with.

"You have a higher responsibility to the membership of this House and to the people — a responsibility as chairman to deal with each of us as you would want and expect to be dealt with — honorably and as ladies and gentlemen.

"Your appointment as chairman acknowledges my full confidence that you can and will discharge these responsibilities fully, fairly and as a credit to the heritage of this great State.

"With your help and the dedication of the membership of the House, this will be the most effective and productive General Assembly ever.

"Congratulations and best wishes for a successful session."

Representative Joy Johnson rises on a point of personal privilege. In compliance with Rule 11, and on motion of Representative Michaux, Representative Johnson's remarks are carried as follows:

"Mr. Speaker and Members of the House.

"During the past week the TV commentary — 'Roots' by Alexander Haley was seen by nearly a hundred million Americans. It was designed to portray that black Americans have roots, identity, pride, dignity, integrity, moral and religious consciences. Also that they are proud of their heritage and history, although deprived of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. It factualized the torture, torment, trials, tears and persecution of blacks from slavery to freedom's servants. It crystalized that blacks are not promiscuous, shiftless, happy and satisfied with only sex, soft shoes and a warm bathroom.

"The major roles or characters in the drama were (1) the house plantation niggers, (2) the sympathetic supporting whites, (3) the KKKs or tyrant landlords and (4) the black engineers or liberators.

"This drama was resourceful and revealing to many Americans but regrettable and resentful to others — even created greater anger and animosity between the races and violence in some areas.

"America's 200th Birthday could have been the greatest opportunity to rectify the inequalities, injustices, and to fulfill the American dream plus to unify the Nation.

"In the last few days the two Jimmies — Jimmy Carter in the White House and Jimmy Hunt in the State House had the opportunities, as leaders to practice what they preached — to be the best President ever and Governor respectively. However, Mr. Carter nominated pro-segregationist, Griffin Bell, for U. S. Attorney General and on Friday, Mr. Hunt refused to name a minority to the most significant commission in the State, the Advisory Budget Commission. This was not the beginning of a new day in North Carolina. Although Mr. Carter appointed Congressman Andrew Young to the United Nations, Mrs. Patricia Harris, Secretary of H.U.D., and Representative Brown to the White House Staff and Governor Hunt appointed Mr. Howard Lee, Secretary of Natural and Economic Resources, Dr. John Larkins, Special Assistant to the Governor on the Minority Affairs, Mr. John Edward, Head of EOC and Harold Webb, Director of Personnel; none of these appointments will compensate for the dire mistakes made in each instance.

"The conscientious, committed, concerned, freedom loving liberators will not be satisfied, only the house or plantation niggers.

"In the General Election, we gave Mr. Carter and Mr. Hunt above 90% of the black vote. We do not request to be treated special, but fair and equal.

"We are loyal Democrats, not sometime Democrats."

On motion of Representative W. S. Harris, seconded by Representative DeBruhl, the House adjourns to reconvene February 1, 1977 at 12:00 noon.

You may not be aware, however, that at the present time there are 15,300 members across the State of North Carolina and over 370 different chapters.

"Thanks to many of you in this room and in the Senate Chambers the North Carolina Jaycees were fortunate to help with building a Burn Center in Chapel Hill, which ground was broken about two weeks ago. The Jaycees have also been involved in many other State-wide projects including a project to collect ten (10) million pennies to build a camp, raising money and promoting the Cystic Fibrosis campaign, and supporting a Boys' Home at Lake Waccamaw in Huntersville. The leadership of the North Carolina Jaycees that are here today are going to meet with each of their Representatives to show their concern for good government in North Carolina.

"Many here have been providing training for the most important project of the Jaycees. That most important project of the North Carolina Jaycees is the Leadership Training for young men to make a real contribution to their community, state and nation.

"Mr. Speaker, it is my pleasure to honor today the North Carolina Jaycees."

Substitute for H. B. 658, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REPEAL ARTICLES 13, 13A, 13B AND 25 OF GENERAL STATUTES CHAPTER 58 RELATING TO THE FIRE INSURANCE RATING BUREAU, FIRE AND CASUALTY INSURANCE RATE REGULATIONS, AND REGULATION OF AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY INSURANCE RATES; TO PROVIDE A NEW METHOD OF RATE REGULATION; AND TO AMEND CHAPTERS 58 AND 97 TO CONSOLIDATE THE FUNCTIONS OF THE FIRE INSURANCE RATING BUREAU, THE COMPENSATION RATING AND INSPECTION BUREAU, AND THE AUTOMOBILE RATE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE; AND TO ASSURE THE PROPER OPERATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA REINSURANCE FACILITY ON A SUSTAINING BUT NONPROFIT BASIS, respectfully report that we have conferred and agreed as follows:

Amendment #1 — rewritten to read as follows:

"Sec. 9 G. S. 58-30.4 as the same appears in the 1975 Cumulative Supplement to Volume 2B of the General Statutes of North Carolina is hereby amended to read as follows:

The North Carolina Rate Bureau shall promulgate a revised basic classification plan and a revised subclassification plan for coverages on private passenger (non-fleet) motor vehicles in this state affected by the provisions of G. S. 58-30.3. Said revised basic classification plan will provide for the following four basic classifications to wit: (i) pleasure use only; (ii) pleasure use except for driving to and from work; (iii) business use; and (iv) farm use. The North Carolina Rate Bureau shall promulgate a revised subclassification plan which appropriately reflects the statistical driving experience and exposure of insureds in each of the four basic classifications provided for above, except that no subclassification shall be promulgated based, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, upon the age or sex of the person insured. Such revised subclassification plan may provide for premium surcharges for insured having less than (2) years' driving experience as licensed drivers, and shall provide for premium surcharges for drivers having a driving record consisting of a record of a chargeable accident or accidents, or having a driving record consisting of a conviction or convictions for a moving traffic violation or violations, or any combination thereof, and the premium income from insured subject to this premium surcharge shall provide not less than one fourth of the total premium income of insurers in writing and servicing the aforesaid coverages in this State. The classification plans and subclassification plans so promulgated by the bureau shall be subject to the filing, hearing, disapproval, review and appeal procedures before the Commissioner and the Courts as provided for rates and classification plans in G. S. 58-128, G. S. 58-129, and G. S. 58-130."

Amendments # 2 and #3 — rewritten to read as follows:

Amend Committee Substitute for House Bill 658 on page 36, lines 8 through 28, pages 37, 38 and 39, lines 1 through 24 by amending subdivision (6) to read as follows:

"(6) Upon the request of any licensed fire and casualty agent meeting any two of the standards set forth below as determined by the Commissioner of Insurance within 10 days of the receipt of the application, the facility shall contract with one or more members within 20 days of receipt of the determination to appoint such licensed fire and casualty agent as designated agents in accordance with reasonable rules as are established by the plan of operation. Such standards shall be:

a. whether the agent's evidence establishes that he has been conducting his business in a community for a period of at least one year;

b. whether the agent's evidence establishes that he had a gross premium volume during the 13 months next preceding the date of his application of at least twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) from motor vehicle insurance;

c. whether the agent's evidence establishes that the number of eligible risks served by him during the 13 months next preceding the date of his application was 200 or more;

d. whether the agent's evidence establishes a growth in eligible risks served and premium volume during his years of service as an agent;

e. whether the agent's evidence establishes that he made available to eligible risks premium financing or any other plan for deferred payment of premiums.

If no insurer is willing to contract with any such agent on terms acceptable to the Board, the facility shall license such agents to write directly on behalf of the facility. However, for this purpose, the facility does not act as an insurer, but only as the statutory agent of all the members of the facility which shall be found on risks written by the facility's appointed agent. Adequate provision shall be made by the facility to assure that business produced by designated agents which would meet the underwriting criteria of the company shall be written at voluntary rate and not at the facility rate if higher. The facility may contract with one or more servicing carriers and shall promulgate fair and reasonable underwriting procedures to require that business produced by facility agents and written through said carriers shall be appropriately classified and rated. To this end, the same underwriting criteria for classification and rates used for its vountary agents shall be used by the servicing carrier servicing such facility agents in order to determine whether the voluntary rate or the facility rate shall apply. All business produced by designated agents or facility agents may be ceded to the facility.

ADDRESS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION BY GOVERNOR JAMES B. HUNT, JR.

January 17, 1977

We stand today on the threshhold of a new beginning in North Carolina. We have before us the opportunity to make fundamental changes in the future of our state, the opportunity to make North Carolina a national leader, recognized once again as a dynamic and progressive state devoted to the betterment of its people.

So let us keep in mind who we are and what we are about. We in North Carolina believe deeply in hard work. We believe in a fair return for that work. We are careful with our money; we save and we plan. We believe deeply in education; we know it is the door to a better future. We believe in wise economic progress. At the same time, we believe in preserving the rich earth and the clear water and the clean air that have blessed us.

What we believe in is people, their future, and their promise. We believe that government exists to help promote their future and realize their promise. I say here tonight to the people of North Carolina that we in this chamber, the people you have elected to serve in your government, are conscious of the charge you have given us.

But how are we to discharge that responsibility?

I believe that we need a new partnership between the legislature, the governor and the people of North Carolina. We need a recognition that the job before us is too big for the governor alone, too big for the lieutenant governor, the Speaker and the Council of State alone, too big for the General Assembly alone. But it's not too big if we work as partners, if we work with the 5½ million people of North Carolina, with their local governments, in their neighborhoods and communities. Together, we can do it.

We must begin this year by recognizing economic reality: Our citizens are hard-pressed already by inflation and taxes. I am opposed to any tax increases. So we must guarantee that government is lean and efficient. I will come back before you later in this session with proposals aimed at reducing the cost of government, including reductions in personnel, and with some essential supplementary requests. I have already instructed my department secretaries to take a hard look at their operations and to propose measures to provide for us the best possible services at the least possible cost.

And we can call on the people of this state to contribute to our progress by doing something other than just paying more taxes; we can make sure they have the opportunities to contribute their time and energy and imagination to our new beginning.

It's estimated that, each year, the people of North Carolina contribute, free of any charge, $2 billion dollars worth of services to each other — in education, in health care, in child care, in work with the handicapped and the mentally retarded, in care for the aged. Now, suppose we doubled that contribution, to $4 billion dollars. That's an amount even greater than the state budget. And it won't cost us a cent in new taxes.

I believe we can do it. I am setting that as a goal for my administration. I ask you to invest $150,000 as seed money toward doubling that citizen contribution. I am proposing the creation of a Governor's Office of Citizen Affairs to do the job.

The goal of the office is simple: to help our people help themselves. It will promote the involvement of citizens where it counts most, in their neighborhoods and communities, where they can see and feel a difference, by their own action, in helping teach children to read, in preventing crime, in conserving energy. That's where the changes have to come.

I believe the Governor's Office of Citizen Affairs can make North Carolina a leader among all the states in giving its people a chance to act. I enthusiastically commend it to your attention.

We must also take steps to guarantee our people the effective executive leadership they deserve. We have a strong General Assembly. I believe we must equip the office of governor with the tools that will help us to have a strong governor.

The people of North Carolina should have the opportunity to decide whether they want their governor to have those tools. The people should be able to decide whether our governor should remain the only one in the country without the veto power. The people should be able to decide whether they want the opportunity to elect to a second successive term a governor who has proven himself responsible and effective.

I ask the members of the General Assembly to consider the arguments that will be forthcoming on whether the people deserve a chance to decide these issues. I believe they do deserve that chance, and I believe you will come to argue with me that they do.

We must look to areas where government should help our people do what they can't do by themselves. And nothing could be more important than economic progress, helping people find a good job and earn a decent living and save for a better future.

You hear a lot of claims about the economic progress we have made. But some unchallengeable facts remain: Our industrial workers make over $2,000 a year less than the national average. The per capita income in North Carolina ranks 43rd among the 50 states. Unemployment is far too high among our young people, particularly among blacks and Indians.

Our narrowly based economy sometimes catches pneumonia when our national economy catches cold.

North Carolina must have an "open-door policy" to good industry. We must aggressively seek out the best jobs we can find. We must find the good prospects and sell them on why they should come to North Carolina. And we must use the full resources of state government to make sure that they are welcome throughout this state.

If we are to be competitive, we must reorganize the structure of state government involved in economic development. I propose that we transfer the Economic Development Division into a newly vitalized Department of Commerce, giving it the strong leadership and the resources that will enable us to compete with other states. And I guarantee you it will act consistent with environmental interests.

I propose the establishment of an Economic Development Board that will involve business and industrial leaders from across the state in this effort. I welcome, and North Carolina needs, its businessmen to help us build our economy. I also recommend that we expand our economic development budget by $1 million.

We must insure that we have a work force that can handle the jobs we want to bring to North Carolina. So I am proposing the establishment of a Labor Force Development Council in the Department of Commerce to determine the labor needs of our economy and to develop programs and policies that will enable us to fill those needs.

We must examine our other transportation needs in terms of how they contribute to our economic development. To that end, I believe we should reestablish a single policy-making Board of Transportation, one that can take a broad view of our needs — including primary highways, secondary roads, mass transit and airports — and one that will treat all our counties fairly.

I will also propose that this General Assembly submit to the voters of this state for consideration as soon as possible a highway construction bond issue of at least $300 million, one that will require no increase in taxes. The bond issue is a badly needed tool in our economic-development efforts.

Our efforts to strengthen our economy, however, may fall flat if we can't provide adequate energy resources. I propose that we transfer the State Energy Division to the Department of Commerce to coordinate our energy resources with our economic needs.

There could be no more pressing proof of our need for long-range energy policy than the current natural-gas crisis that threatens severe economic dislocations this winter.

We must also keep our agricultural economy strong. To that end, I will create a governor's advisory committee on agriculture to monitor our needs and our potential in this area.

The development of a strong economy can't be separated from the development of good, livable communities and the preservation of our natural resources. I propose to make those objectives the twin mission of a new Department of Natural Resources and Community Development.

A central theme of government in North Carolina over the next four years can be developing governmental policies, programs and procedures from the bottom up rather than from the top down. If we are going to seize the initiative from the federal government in improving the economic, social and political status of all our people, we must make available to our local governments the expertise that they need in good planning and good management. I believe this reorganized department can best do that job.

And this department can continue to promote the protection and wise use of our natural resources.

I see a new thrust for this department, too: community employment. I propose that it work with local governments to pull together existing programs — including the Comprehensive Employment Training Act, the Manpower Development Council and any forthcoming employment legislation — to develop our citizens' skills in a way that will attack the debilitating migration of untrained workers from our communities.

The quality of our community life can also be improved by the full development of our cultural resources. Our lives can be enriched by poetry, by music, by drama, by dance.

I believe all that I have talked about is but a prelude to our most important job: the education of our children. Nothing is more central to our future; our children are our future.

In a state that prides itself most on its dedication to public education, but where nearly 40% of our children who start in the first grade still fail to graduate, we must make changes. Our dedicated teachers, administrators and school boards are willing. Our people, now over the trauma of school desegregation, are ready.

I shall do everything that I can as Governor and ask you, the General Assembly, and our people to join together to build the best educational system that we can in North Carolina.

The public schools belong to the people. We must be open and honest with the people as to how they are doing and involve them in every way possible to improve them.

I propose that we measure the progress that our children are making in our schools each year, beginning now in the early grades, by standardized tests given state-wide. The results should be available to parents and to the public, and interpreted in terms of "progress made" — not where a child began. The results, I believe, will spur us on to greater support of our schools.

We should develop and require that by the spring of 1979, every senior who graduates from a North Carolina high school has passed a minimum competency test of the survival skills of reading and math.

To involve and benefit our citizens to a far greater degree than we have known in recent history, I propose a statewide Community Schools Act. We, the people, own libraries, gyms, shops, laboratories, meeting rooms, and equipment in every community. They are located in our public schools. I urge that we "open up" our schools to the people who need to use them as true "community facilities." I further urge that we increase the people's involvement in our schools by school advisory committees to provide grassroots advice and help as needed to our legally constituted school officials.

As the third part of our new thrust in public education, I urge that we give new meaning to the declaration of our North Carolina Constitution that: "The people have a right to the privilege of education . . ." I believe that we secure that right only if every child in our public schools learns to read. If our people spoke clearly to any single issue in the recent election, it was for this goal.

As the catalyst for this effort which must engage every teacher, school board, and countless citizen volunteers, I propose that we invest $15 million during the coming year to put special reading aides and instructional materials in 2,681 first, second, and third grade classrooms. I propose that, over the next four years, we put this program into every first, second, and third grade classroom in our state. It is the best investment we can make in our future.

Let us not forget that the development of our children shouldn't begin in the first grade, or in kindergarten. Too many children reach the first year of school already stunted and twisted by their early childhood experiences — poor health care, poor nutrition, neglect and even child abuse. Preventing that must be the primary goal of our Department of Human Resources.

And just as we care for the young, we cannot ignore the well-being of our senior citizens. I plan to create, within the Department of Human Resources, an aggressive, visible Division for the Aging.

If we are to realize the full benefits of our human resources in North Carolina, we must eliminate the discrimination that limits the opportunities of half the members of our society. Accordingly, I urge you to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment.

If we are to meet the needs of our consumers, we must have tighter regulation of their monthly bills. I recommend that the staff of the Utilities Commission be taken from the control of the commissioners, put under an executive director appointed for a fixed term by the governor and put to work arguing the citizens' case in every rate proceeding. I also propose the creation of a Citizens Advisory Council to help guarantee that the voice of the people be heard before the Utilities Commission.

If we are to make our communities safe places in which to live, we must take strong action to fight crime. I believe we must concentrate on preventing crime. I believe this is so important that I ask you to allow me to return to you with a special message on what I believe we can do to win this fight.

I also recommend your support for other measures that will come before you.

I strongly support the 6.5 per cent pay increase in the budget for our teachers and state employees. I hope that we can afford more. That increase covers the cost of living, and, when our revenue picture becomes clearer, we should consider further increases.

To insure that career teachers and state employees are rewarded the way that professionals should be, I believe we should take a hard look at longevity increases and other salary adjustments. I am looking forward to examining the proposals in this regard from the special committee chaired by Senator Stallings.

I also urge you to make two changes in our tax laws, changes that will make those laws fairer to people who work for a living. These are the elimination of the $120 sales tax limit on luxury vehicles and a doubling in the inheritance tax exemption, to $20,000.

I have outlined tonight a comprehensive agenda for action. It is not going to be an easy job to accomplish. The times call for energy, imagination and strong, responsible leadership.

The challenges before us are great, but not greater than the opportunity. We can be inspired by one North Carolinian who spoke of this opportunity.

Thomas Wolfe wrote:

"I believe that we are lost in America, but I believe we shall be found . . . I think the true discovery of America is before us. I think the true fulfillment of our spirit, of our people, of our mighty and immortal land, is yet to come.

"I think the true discovery of our own democracy is still before us. And I think that all these things are certain as the morning, as inevitable as noon.

"I think I speak for most men living when I say that our America is here, is now, and beckons before us, and that this glorious assurance is not only our living hope, but our dream to be accomplished."

This year, let us lead North Carolina toward the accomplishment of that dream.

ADDRESS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION BY GOVERNOR JAMES B. HUNT, JR.

January 31, 1977

Let those who commit crimes in North Carolina know that henceforth they are marching to the beat of a different drummer. North Carolina's approach to controlling crime has failed. Together — as Governor, as a General Assembly, as a people — we must evolve a new plan of direction.

Today, we are the witnesses to a new crime rate that staggers the imagination. The FBI statistics show that North Carolina now has the 5th largest increase in its crime rate. North Carolina is especially vulnerable since crime is increasing more rapidly than ever before in the suburbs and rural areas.

Our prisons are inundated. We have one of the highest, if not the highest per capita prison populations in the United States. Our penal sanctions are among the most severe in the nation. Since 1970, the percentage of prisoners who are felons has increased substantially.

More young people are committing serious crimes. In 1975, 69 per cent of our total inmate population was under 30 years of age.

North Carolina is not unusual, for crime is not geographically restricted; it is flourishing across the country. But we can be unique in developing a model plan to combat crime. We must be careful not to overpromise. We are not going to "solve" crime; we are not going to wipe it out in North Carolina. But our unfortunate record leads me, as your Governor, to the inescapable conclusion that we must act now to mobilize the full resources of North Carolina — the police, the sheriffs, the courts, the prisons, the executive branch of government, the General Assembly and, most important, the people of North Carolina.

We must have a compresensive plan that enables us to move ahead effectively and forcefully in protecting our lives, our homes and our property. I want to ask every North Carolinian tonight to make a commitment to be a part of that mobilization.

I believe it is up to those of us in this chamber, the elected leaders of North Carolina, to take the lead in pulling those resources together, in providing a central direction for what we must do and in establishing clear lines of responsibility for doing it. So let us begin tonight to work together to provide the leadership that this state has been lacking.

Let us first put state government's house in order. Let us make one department responsible for fighting crime and place under it those agencies that are equipped to do the job. I will offer you legislation that, in place of the present Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, will establish a Department of Crime Control, Public Safety and Veterans. I propose that we transfer to this new department the State Highway Patrol, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Enforcement Division, the Governor's Commission on Law and Order, the Law and Order Section, the Criminal Justice Information System Board and the Security and Privacy Board. I propose that the Department retain the Veterans Affairs Commission and the Divisions of Veterans Affairs, Civil Preparedness, Civil Air Patrol and the National Guard.

This redirection and refocusing of our efforts will enable the new department to work with the Attorney General's Office and make sure that we are getting our money's worth out of the agencies of state government that are responsible for fighting crime and protecting the public safety.

I urge your speedy consideration of this proposal. I hope this restructured department can start work on April 1.

I also believe that we must establish a "lead agency," one that will establish a plan for fighting crime and will be a catalyst for the changes we need. Our efforts in the past have been botched by inefficient, unfocused planning. We must spend wisely the millions of federal dollars available for effective crime-fighting programs. So I propose that we change the name of the Governor's Commission on Law and Order to the Governor's Crime Commission and make it the nerve center for planning our fight against crime.

We must involve the people of this state in our efforts, so I propose that the commission have 28 voting and six ex-officio members, representing all parts of the criminal justice system at both the local and state levels. We can broaden the commission's reach by also creating several adjunct committees with additional members who will bring to the commission more experience and knowledge in the areas of crime prevention and public information, judicial planning, law enforcement, corrections and juvenile code revision.

Time is crucial here. North Carolina stands to lose several million dollars in federal funds unless prompt action is taken. That action needs to be taken by this new Crime Commission. It should have a formal meeting by March 10, and appointments must be made before then. I respectfully request your positive action on this legislation by February 15.

We must also recognize that we will be fighting a losing battle against crime if we don't prevent the literally tens of thousands of young people who are in trouble with the law today from becoming hard-core criminals tomorrow. So I propose the creation of a Juvenile Code Revision Commission to develop a plan that will protect our citizens and best serve the needs of our young people. This will be the first concentrated, coordinated and independent evaluation of our juvenile justice efforts. It will objectively study existing laws, services, agencies, and commissions and recommend whether they should be continued, amended, abolished or merged.

I also ask that you hold in abeyance any major new legislation that involves a change in present policy until this commission makes its report. If possible, it should report some recommendations before this session adjourns. Its full report should be ready at the beginning of the next session of the General Assembly. It can begin work as soon as you pass legislation creating the Governor's Crime Commission. We do not need any appropriations for it; Law Enforcement Assistance Administration funds are already available.

The study commission will be composed of 12 persons — a member of the House, a member of the Senate and 10 citizens. Each state child-serving agency and private organization with an interest in this area will be asked to designate a person to present its views and information to the commission.

In making these requests, I realize that studies have been done before by many agencies, organizations and individuals. But our efforts have been uncoordinated in the past, despite our good intentions. Look at what we face today: an increase in juvenile delinquency and undisciplined conduct; fragmentation among about 20 child-serving agencies of state government; bureaucratic infighting; frustration on the part of our juvenile judges, who admit they do not know what to do with the children before them; disagreements between those who believe that undisciplined children should be dealt with by the courts and those who believe they should be referred to social agencies; utter confusion over the role of our training schools and a failure to have available today adequate community resources for children who might best be helped in their own communities. It is clear that we need a fresh approach.

I also request that you stay the implementation of the portion of House Bill 456 enacted by the 1975 General Assembly that would, after July 1, prohibit the courts from committing to the state's training schools children who have previously been placed on probation for undisciplined conduct. We must continue to work toward that goal, but we must admit that we have failed to move quickly enough to provide adequate community-based alternatives.

This is an emotional issue. Our citizens care about our children. And sometimes, I suspect, the heart, rather than the head, has guided our decisions. We need both, and I appeal to the members of the legislature to take the lead in seeing that we use both.

Just as crime is one of the greatest concerns of our citizens, our citizens can do the most to stop it before it happens. We must all simply recognize our responsibilities. If we want respect for the law, we must exemplify that respect in our daily lives. If we want to reduce crime, we must be willing to serve on a jury and convict when the evidence compels it. We must be willing to join our neighbors in learning to watch out for each other and each other's homes. Communities that have Community Watch programs have reduced crime.

Forsyth County has 110 Community Watch programs, and the burglary rate in those communities has been reduced by 98 per cent. Countywide, the burglary rate has been cut in half.

One of the duties of my proposed new Office of Citizens Affairs will be to extend that program across the state.

If we want to get serious about fighting crime, we must stand behind those men and women who are our first line of defense — our law enforcement officers. We must pay them fairly, so I have proposed that their minimum salaries be raised in the coming budget year to $7,600 a year. I also recommend that local units gradually pay higher percentages of officers' salaries in order to qualify for minimum salary supplements from the state. Adequate training goes hand in hand with adequate salaries, so I strongly support at least 240 hours of training for our officers.

We must also require training for all magistrates, including those who, because of the grandfather clause, have been exempted from any training requirement. I also propose that we consider increasing their requirement from 40 to 60 hours. We must recognize that our magistrates are a crucial point in our system: the point at which an error can set a criminal free and a point at which most of our citizens have their first contacts; and form their first impressions of our system.

I believe it is wrong for our law officers to be risking their lives and at the same time running an undue risk of lawsuits arising from actions taken in the line of duty. So I propose that we move as quickly as possible to provide $1 million in liability protection to each of our officers. Doctors and lawyers would refuse to practice if they didn't have this kind of coverage, and we must give our law officers the same protection. For their further protection, I propose that we enact a "come-along" statute and a provision for the termination of an arrest.

Our system must also be better prepared to ease the trauma and tragedy of rape cases. We must provide special training for officers who handle these cases, and they must work closely with local rape-crisis centers. The Council on the Status of Women will assist these efforts.

We must change some of our criminal laws to enable our system to work more effectively and efficiently. I recommend that this state commit itself to a program of restitution, in which criminals are required to pay their victims for the losses and damage they cause. Under present law, a judge can require this only when the offender is put on probation. I believe we must require offenders to pay restitution while in jail or on parole or after being released. I propose that this be our primary effort while we continue to examine programs for victim compensation in other states. It is our duty to see that the criminal makes his victims whole.

There is one fundamental change we must make in our laws. The best way to deter a potential criminal is to let him know in advance what his punishment will be if he is caught and convicted.

So I say to you that the time has come in North Carolina for a certain-sentencing law.

There are two compelling reasons for it: first, it is the best deterrent to crime: second, it is the only way to reduce the discrimination and disparity in sentencing that breeds disrespect and lack of confidence in our system. We must let our citizens know that the law will be applied fairly and without favor. I know that the poor aren't the only ones who commit crimes, but it sometimes seems that they are the only ones who go to prison. We must also treat the white-collar criminals with certainty and toughness.

The disparity in sentencing is frightening. Convictions for manslaughter bring sentences ranging from probation to 20 years in prison. Our judges have far too much discretion. This legislature should prescribe the public policy for sentencing criminals. We have no logical system of sentencing now; it's a public lottery. We need a well-defined philosophy for sentencing. We must have a system of laws, not of men.

We should consider presumptive-sentencing legislation, now before the Knox Commission. I believe such legislation should enable the General Assembly, by law, to prescribe what the punishment should be for various categories of felonies; it should provide the factors that can be considered in increasing or reducing that punishment and require judges to spell out those factors in writing; it should permit no other discretion in sentencing.

Because of concern for first offenders, many of whom are young, our judges should be allowed to suspend their sentences. But second and third offenders should receive mandatory jail terms.

With that same goal of deterrence in mind, I support the reinstatement of the death penalty for first-degree, premeditated murder. Reason tells me that many people who can kill in cold blood can be deterred by the threat of death. And the existence of that threat can result in less taking of human life. But I don't think the people of North Carolina consider the death penalty an appropriate punishment for rape, and I oppose its application here. I am afraid that many rapists are acquitted because of the reluctance of jurors to apply the death penalty in those cases. Further, I believe that any death penalty law, if it is to be fairly applied, must provide for experienced criminal defense counsel.

We can make other changes in our laws to deter crime. To prevent violent crimes, we should require a jail sentence whenever a gun is used in the commission of a felony. We can best prevent robberies and burglaries by putting the fences out of business, so I recommend that we strengthen our completely inadequate laws against receiving stolen goods. We citizens are also paying for the heavy losses our merchants sustain from bad checks, and I support strengthening our laws against the habitual offenders and those who intend to defraud.

To focus our resources where they are most needed, I urge law enforcement officers at all levels to concentrate on the pushers of hard drugs. I commend the Attorney General's Office for its efforts here. I also believe we would be wise to decriminalize drunkenness and treat it as a disease, using the jails only for the safety of the drunk.

Almost every law officer I have talked with across this state, however, tells me that our greatest need in the fight against crime is to make our courts work better. I agree. And that means we must guarantee speedy trials. Nothing can be more sobering to the criminal than to realize he will be tried quickly. The accused already has the right to a speedy trial in our system; the public should have the right for its protection, too.

Many criminal cases in North Carolina remain on the docket for 18 months. The solution is not assembly-line justice; it is additional courts to handle the backlog of cases. So I recommend that you approve provisions in the current budget adding 14 new Superior Court judges and the supporting personnel needed to assure trials within 90 days of indictment. I believe we should look to legislation supported by Speaker Stewart to achieve that goal. We should begin phasing-in the speedy-trial requirement by July 1, 1978. We must make sure that our courtrooms are working for us at least eight hours a day.

In addition, we must reduce the time consumed by appeals in criminal cases. Too often, frivolous appeals permit offenders to remain on the streets, committing more crimes, and many appeal for that purpose. To increase our appellate courts' capacity, I urge this General Assembly to consider limiting unnecessary, trial-consuming appeals in criminal cases and to determine whether additional appellate judges are needed to keep pace with the crowded calendars. We must also scrutinize the Criminal Procedures Act to insure that it doesn't permit unnecessary delays in trials. We must remember that justice delayed is justice and firmness denied.

We must also concentrate the resources of our district attorneys' offices where they will do the most good — against the career criminal. So I will establish pilot programs in certain counties that will identify the habitual offender, concentrate against him all the resources needed to investigate the case, try him quickly and, if he is convicted, put him in jail as soon as possible. If these pilot programs are as successful here as they have been in other states, I will recommend that they be adopted statewide. We must let the repeater know that we will move quickly and strongly to get him off the streets.

To help us in this effort, we should explore ways to make the position of assistant district attorney a more attractive career, so that we will have experienced prosecutors who are skilled at handling serious criminal cases against highly paid defense lawyers.

Now we come to the end of the line — our prisons. It is a simple fact that they are not working. We have some 13,600 prisoners, but only 10,900 bed spaces. Our prisons are old. Their staffs are inadequate. Some of our wardens acknowledge that the inmates control many sections of their prisons. We can't protect inmates from assaults. Some judges refuse to sentence convicted offenders to our prisons. We must resolve to make our prisons effective arms of our fight against crime, not just human warehouses.

As Governor, I am moving ahead to ease the overcrowding with the construction of modular units by mid-summer. I will also propose legislation that will require offenders with sentences of six months or less to be confined in jails and other local facilities, when there is room. Because only about half of the bed spaces in our training schools are being used, we should house offenders under the age of 21 in some training schools. I will also recommend that, during the coming months, when we must relieve overcrowding, the Paroles Commission carefully consider early release under special parole for low-risk inmates who represent no serious threat to the community.

We must also move ahead with long-range prison construction. I support the budget's provision for prison construction, including Phase One of Central Prison. After reviewing the Knox Commission's work, I also suggest that you carefully consider the following recommendations in budgeting money for long-range construction: that prison units have enough single-cells, that they not have more than 300 inmates and that they be dispersed across the state. I want to appeal to the elected leaders of the people of this state to help us face up to this situation, to convey to the people our urgent need to build new prisons. And we must recognize that, while no one wants a prison in his community, we won't be safe without them.

We must also end the dangerous idleness in our prisons. We must put the inmates to work. Where possible, prison labor should be used to build new facilities. Existing facilities can use painting and scrubbing. Work is the best form of rehabilitation, and it will be the policy for inmates during this administration.

We must recognize that some inmates can be rehabilitated, and programs should be available for those who want to participate. But participating in rehabilitation programs should not be a ticket for early release. We must strike what our able new Secretary of Correction, Amos Reed, calls a fair balance between rehabilitation and control. We have neither now; let us move to change that.

To guarantee certainty and fairness in punishment, I also believe that we must abolish discretionary paroles. In place of the current system, we should grant inmates a specified time off for every day of good behavior and we should consider granting extra good time for certain kinds of work. That gives every prisoner a certain release date. The paroles system has been consistently abused throughout the years, and that abuse frustrates inmates and disgusts the public.

I want to address a few words now to the members of the General Assembly. This first month has been an exciting one; we have witnessed an inauguration here and the inauguration of a new Persident. You have been sworn in and begun your work. The State of the State message, the preparation of the budget, this special message on crime, taking hold of the executive branch of government, the energy crisis — these matters have occupied much of my time. Our first month of work has quickly reminded us of the responsibility that the people have given us.

We hold office in a special time. The people are watching us to see whether we have the courage and the wisdom to help them move ahead.

In so many ways, they are far ahead of us in their willingness to begin moving. Let us meet that challenge. I have no pretensions of being able to provide all the leadership that we need by myself. I am proud to have been a part of this General Assembly for the last four years. I have learned from you, and I look forward to working with you to provide the leadership that our people are looking for.

And, to the people of North Carolina, let me say this: No matter how hard we try, there is not enough courage and wisdom in this chamber to do all the things that need to be done. I have spelled out tonight a broad range of ideas that I believe we should pursue. The members of this legislature will be considering those ideas and refining them and adding their own in coming months. In the end, they pass the laws.

I ask all of you to recognize your responsibilities. The system we build to fight crime doesn't belong to just the Governor and the General Assembly and the courts; it belongs to you. The law officers work for you. The courts belong to you. the prisons belong to you. I ask you to make a commitment to make them work for you.

The problem of crime is so great today that I believe much of the time of this General Assembly needs to be devoted to reducing it. This legislature can be remembered for what it accomplishes here. It can be remembered as the first General Assembly to unite our people and our resources in the fight against crime. Let us reach together for that distinction.

REMARKS ON NATIONAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION WEEK MADE BY REP. ADDISON NEAL SMITH, ROWAN COUNTY,

Joint Legislative Session, May 9, 1977

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker and Friends of N. C.:

It is perhaps appropriate when you come into a meeting hall such as this most historic State Capitol Building that we should hold a revival. If I were a preacher or one of the old style window-rattling orators who served in this building a century or so ago, perhaps I would take this time to talk about reviving our spirits, about renewing our souls, or about rekindling the old-time religion. Since I am not a preacher and would not attempt to match the oratory that must have radiated throughout this building some years ago, I will confine my remarks to another kind of renewal — the renewal of historic properties and sites and the renewal of all of our manmade resources. If the term "manmade resources" sounds a little unusual, I mean by it all of the buildings, sites and landscapes, created by any men in any age including our own.

If you have looked out the north windows of the Legislative Building during the last couple of weeks you will have noted that there is a building in the middle of the street. If you look out later this week you will find a band of archaeologists at work at the site the building formerly occupied. That building — the old Seaboard Coastline Railroad Office Building — and the site it occupied are historic properties containing a material record of one portion of Raleigh for more than a hundred years. The Seaboard Building is on the National Register of Historic Places because it is one of the most significant commercial or industrial buildings still standing in the state of North Carolina. And after years of discussion and debate the building will be preserved and the site from which it has been moved will be examined and interpreted.

What is presently happening in the case of the Seaboard Building — that it is being preserved and renewed for another use. We should be renewing, recycling, and reusing all of our historic resources and all of our reusable manmade resources. And we should be doing this for a number of very practical reasons: (1) Money spent on the rehabilitation of old buildings is three times as labor intensive as new construction. (2) The rehabilitation of older buildings, despite what some architects and contractors eager to erect new buildings might say, is from twenty to fifty percent less costly than new construction. (3) Rehabilitation or renewal of older buildings results in a total savings of the valuable natural resources and energy which has already been invested in a particular structure. (4) The rehabilitation of buildings in certain dstricts results in the total revival of rundown areas.

What is historic preservation? It is not only the care and display of such historic gems as Mount Vernon, the Gettysburg Battlefield, and the North Carolina State Capitol. It is also the revival of commercial buildings, government offices, factories, banks, churches, schools, prisons, hospitals, hotels, and even brothels. It is prehistoric sites and Indian ruins, river crossings, canals, railroads, bridges, and dams. It is farms and campgrounds, sunken vessels, ships, and airplanes. It is in short all those tangible links with the past that inform and inspire.

It is appropriate that we should discuss these things at this time and this place. Today is the beginning of National Historical Preservation Week proclaimed by our President throughout the nation and in North Carolina by our Governor. This building in which we meet is one of a small handful of buildings throughout the nation which has been designated a National Historic Landmark. This building along with such buildings as the Seaboard Building symbolize the best tendencies in the world of historic preservation today — the revival and reuse of our historic resources not merely as museums but also for the purposes for which they were intended and for which they are most suitably used.

I will conclude my remarks by urging every member of the House and of the Senate and friends of North Carolina to remember from this occasion that we have a responsibility to find the ways and means of protecting both the natural and the manmade resources. From my perspective, there is no better place to make such a commitment than in this building which is so dear to the hearts of our citizens.

REMARKS OF REP. MYRTLE WISEMAN TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

May 4, 1977

Mr. Speaker . . . and ladies and gentlemen of the House:

I have given countless hours and months of thought as to whether I should make the forthcoming statement giving my personal feelings concerning the death penalty for the crime of first degree or forced rape. Finally, with the approval of my husband . . . who is with me here today . . . we came to the conclusion that as a woman . . . speaking for the countless thousands of women who have suffered this most horrible trauma . . . I would speak out on their behalf. Also, for the little girls and boys who have recently lost their lives at the hands of demented killer rapists. If I sound irrational on the subject, it is because of the outrage I feel to know such things can happen in America.

We who are serving in the Legislature of North Carolina have the power, and we must use that power to enact legislation that will free society of such maniacal killers!

Although I agree with our Governor in most of his thinking . . . I must disagree with him on his stand concerning death penalty for rape. Governor Hunt in his speech on law and order said . . . that his common sense told him capital punishment was a deterrent to murder, but that he did not feel that the death penalty was appropriate for rape, the punishment for which should be "up to life." The same common sense to which the Governor referred, tells me that the death penalty is a deterrent to rape. This is a protection against rape which it seems to me, no person would seek to deny women. All women are vulnerable to rape — mothers, sisters, wives, daughters — be they young or old. Today it is a common occurrence. The danger of rape lurks in every parking lot, or the path a working woman takes to work, and in her own bed in the middle of the night, or in the middle of the day if she is at home alone. Frequently the woman is beaten, torn, left with broken bones, and worse. Surely this is not the time to minimize the crime of rape by reducing the punishment for it!

The rapes with which the courts deal today are not the consequences of a petting party which got out of hand; they are premeditated crimes, accomplished by burglary, kidnapping, and lying in wait for their victim. Sometimes they are accomplished by men who hunt in pairs or in larger numbers. And more and more frequently the rape victim is forced to engage in the detestable — crime against nature. As an example, I cite a case which our North Carolina Supreme Court affirmed on January 31st of this year. (1) A young monther sleeping in her mobile home, alone except for her two-year-old daughter, was awakened at 2:00 A.M. by two men who had cut her telephone wires and broken in. They not only threatened to kill her, but, in her words, "They used (her) daughter as a weapon." While one raped her in the normal fashion, at the same time — simultaneously — the other animal forced her to have "oral sex" with him. In another case, [2]affirmed by the court a few weeks earlier, the beating which was administered to a woman, who was ambushed as she walked to work, was nothing compared to the veneral disease (gonorrhea, in fact) which she contacted as a result of the rape.

Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, there are more ways to kill a woman than to take her life. Certainly something died that night in that young woman when she was raped in her mobile home, for she had received the ultimate insult. She had been used as if she were a mere aphrodisiac thing. She will never completely recover her self respect. She will never again feel clean or have the normal reactions of an emotionally healthy woman.

For more than a decade the U. S. Supreme Court made it impossible for the states to execute any criminal for any crime. During those years the number of rapes multiplied dramatically. The statistics provide no reason to believe that the death penalty would not be a deterrent for rape. . . . And surely our common sense tells us if anything can deter it, the death penalty will. The excuses made for some murder rapists, or forced rapists is beyond my comprehension. For example . . . "He came from a low income family" . . . "He dropped out of school, therefore he has no education so he can't get a job" . . . "His mama was mean to him," so he takes out his frustrations by committing rape every chance he gets! Another commonly used excuse we hear is that he is mentally ill . . . or that he was temporarily insane and didn't know what he was doing . . . or boys will be boys . . . Hogwash! Do you believe that any of these reasons give him the right to ruin, literally ruin, or to take the life of a child or a woman?

You may recall the murder and mutilation last summer of the young woman who was a student at one of the community colleges in the Piedmont section of North Carolina. She was from Avery County. . . . In talking with one of her relatives I learned that the media simply couldn't report how horribly mutilated that young woman was! Where is her murderer now? I would venture to say . . . that he is in an institution somewhere in North Carolina still undergoing psychiatric evaluation . . . at the taxpayers' expense. . . . If this is true, how must her family feel knowing that their hard-earned tax dollars are being used for his upkeep. Where is it going to end . . . if the U. S. Supreme Court members continue to sit up in Washington in their Ivory Towers and hand down decisions that make it impossible, at this point to execute these "so called" men who commit such horrible crimes? Until the day when any man . . . and all men know with certainty what their fates will be if these crimes are committed . . . some will go right on raping helpless women and children knowing that the courts will protect them. Is that not a sad commentary of what the Justices are doing to protect us, the women and children of America? And I say this to you . . . there isn't a man in this General Assembly . . . this nation . . . or this world, who is qualified to rule on whether first degree, or forced rape, should or should not be punishable by death . . . the simple reason being . . . he is not a woman.

For a woman to be forced under threat of death to submit to this act is the most humiliating . . . frightening . . . sickening traumatic experience that any woman can possibly live through . . . if she is fortunate enough to come out of it alive.

The following part of this statement happened in Avery County and is possibly the reason why more and more women are afraid to tell when an assault occurs. Because, if she decides to report the incident to a law enforcement agency . . . and if she is married . . . she must . . . with her husband present . . . give a detailed account of the sordid event to the law officer in an oral statement, which he records on paper. If he is caught, she must go to the county courthouse to identify him. She is then sent to a doctor's office for an examination. The doctor must confirm that there are signs the assault happened. Shortly thereafter she is told that she has to appear before a Grand Jury, usually, in the county where the assault occurred. Again . . . she must tell the members of the Grand Jury what happened and, again, in detail. If Grand Jury members believe her . . . her tormentor will be indicted. In this particular case there was an indictment . . . and he was sent down to Dix Hospital for a psychiatric evaluation to determine if he was able to stand trial . . . mentally. He was . . . and he would be tried during the next term of court.

In the meantime . . . an attorney was engaged to defend her . . . and she was the victim. She must then convince her attorney that she was assaulted, and that she didn't know the man she found in her home pointing a .38 revolver at her . . . who told her in no uncertain terms that if she wanted to live . . . she would do what he said. She did what he said, but she was under a doctor's care for two months after the assault — under sedation a great deal of that time. The maniac who had caused her so much anguish . . . was, of course, a poor unfortunate soul who had only spent over twenty years in prison . . . was out on parole . . . and had stolen two cars on the day that she became his victim of rape. So naturally . . . our system being what it is . . . an attorney was appointed by the court to defend him. And if his attorney decided that he should plead not guilty . . . she will be put on the witness stand to be cross examined by that attorney. She will be humiliated to tears by having to repeat what happened to a court full of curious souls. . . . And in some cases . . . made to feel that she is the guilty one . . . instead of the victim. If the rapist is convicted and sent to prison . . . the only worry she now has . . . for the rest of her life . . . is that some well meaning future governor could parole or pardon him . . . only to turn him loose on society again in a few years.

If there is a man within the sound of my voice . . . whose wife, daughter, or some other female relative has ever fallen victim to a rapist . . . you have my deepest sympathy, because I know what it's like . . . I was the victim in this story. . . . Fortunately, I lived to identify him . . . and he was convicted, and sentenced to life imprisonment. Although it is almost ten years since it happened . . . I tremble and feel sick to my stomach in relating the experience to you here today. I feel somewhat degraded to even admit that I was a victim . . . but felt I should tell you all . . . Because if it hasn't happened to you . . . there is no possible way that anyone can understand how such an experience affects a woman, emotionally. I do not advocate the death penalty for the rapist who performs his dastardly act on a woman . . . unless, he should mutilate, or otherwise permanently disfigure her in some way. I do advocate the death penalty for the rape of any child under twelve years of age. Any sick, sick animal who would rape a child . . . has no right to live! The rape of a child leaves an emotional scar that time can never heal.

In my opinion . . . if one child rapist, or murder rapist . . . were hung on the highest limb . . . from the nearest tree . . . no one can convince me that the hanging of such an animal would not prove to be one more deterrent. The bleading hearts who cannot conceive of such horrible brutality to a child rapist . . . or murder rapist . . . I wonder if they would consider having the animals neutered . . . I dare say . . . that neutering would be an alternative deterrent!

Thank you for allowing me to say what I feel had to be said by a woman.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE H. M. MICHAUX, JR. TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

July 1, 1977

Mr. Speaker, my fellow colleagues, ladies and gentlemen:

Let me take this opportunity to first thank you, Mr. Speaker, for inviting me to deliver these few remarks from the well of the House. To be truthful to you members of the House, I asked for the opportunity because this way, we face each other — and to me, on this day — that is significant!

There comes a time in every person's life when — at one point or another — they must say goodbye. This is why I stand before you today. Effective July 18th, 1977 I shall resign my seat in this House and therefore I say to you — my friends — goodbye.

Before I leave, however, there are two thoughts I would like to leave with you. Basically, these thoughts are encompassed in how I feel and what I feel. Since coming to this House in 1973, I have experienced good times as well as bad. I have felt exhilaration as well as frustration. But these were a part of the job I volunteered to undertake and had to be taken in stride.

I believe that what I really want to say to you is that we — you and I — must remember that this State of ours is one big neighborhood where all of us — Black and White, Eastern, Western and Piedmont, Gentile and Jew, Catholic and Protestant — must live together as a family unduly separated in ideas, culture and interest — who can never ever live apart for the sake of fairness and progress. We must look upon this neighborhood as one in which all of us must learn to love and respect each other. We must be cognizant of the ever changing tides that constantly change the shoreline of this the "goodliest State." We — you and I — must remain ever vigilant for the constant social, political and economic revolutions that have taken place — and will take place, that benefit ALL the people of this State.

I am reminded of the story of Rip Van Winkle. You will probably remember that Rip slept for twenty years. But there was an even more significant moral. When Rip went up into the mountains, he passed an inn which had a picture of King George III on a sign in front of it. When he came down, the picture had been replaced by one of George Washington. The point is that not only did Rip sleep twenty years but he slept through a period of great social change. My hope is that we do not sleep through this period of social, political and economic change.

But I still say to you and leave with you this call for a statewide neighborhood that lifts neighborly concern beyond one's tribe, race and class. This is in reality a call for an all embracing and unconditional love for all people. This often misunderstood concept has now become an absolute necessity for the survival of our State. The oceans of history are made turbulent by the ever-rising tides of hate. History is cluttered with the wreckage of nations and individuals who pursued the selfdefeating path of hate. A great philosopher once said:

> "Love is the ultimate force that makes for the saving choice of life and good against the damning choice of death and evil. Therefore, the first hope in our inventory must be the hope that love is going to have the last word."

As you return to your homes remember that we are faced with the fact that tomorrow is today. Remember that we are confronted with the fierce urgency of now! You must show that in these and future times there is such a thing as being too late — that procrastination is still the thief of time. You must tell all within the sound of your voice that life leaves us standing bare, naked and dejected with lost opportunities. That the "tide in the affairs of men" does not remain at flood — it subsides.

We must also point out to those who will hear us, dissent is what made this state and country great. That dissent has become the sound of distant thunder increasing in volume with the gathering storm clouds. That this dissent is our hope. That it shines in the long tradition of American ideals that began with the founding fathers of this country.

Finally, I want to thank you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to assume a role of leadership. Thank you, Grace, for guiding me in the right direction. Thank you Larry, for being a good sergeant-at-arms. Thanks to all the food service personnel, janitors, maids, press, security — to everyone who had a part in allowing me to serve my State and my People.

To Henry, Joy and Richard for sticking with me in the heat of battle. To my Mother and Father, for instilling in me the basic ideals and principles that guide me. To my Brother (who is with us in the gallery today) for looking after the business and for his faith and confidence.

Particularly to Jan — Jan White — my administrative assistant — without whose help and understanding, I could have not made it.

To my wife and daughter for their patience and understanding.

And to you my friends — and you are my friends. I even have some Republican friends. I can now say that "some of my best friends are" Republicans. "I don't know if I would want my daughter to marry one, though!"

But to you my friends here in this House — I say goodbye. I say goodbye knowing we have had our battles. But I leave with the hope and faith that you will continually better this statewide neighborhood for the betterment and equal protection of all its citizens. It is my hope that you leave as I do — with the armor of battle cast off — the wounds of conflict bound with the cloth of peace, and love and cloak of brotherhood surrounding our hearts, souls and minds. That we forever resolve that our work is for the renewal of our neighborhood in keeping with the times.

Thank You and Goodbye.

A copy of the machine print-out shall also be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection:

(1) Second reading and the third reading, if such reading occurs on a day or days following the second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading, and all conference reports on public bills, all motions to lay on the table and all motions to postpone indefinitely.

(2) Upon a call for division.

(3) Any other question upon direction of the Speaker or upon motion of any member supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, one minute shall be allowed for voting on the question before the House, unless the chair shall fix and announce a shorter time. The system shall be set to close automatically when that time has expired. After the system is closed, the Speaker may allow any member to vote until he orders the system locked. All roll call votes shall be taken alphabetically. All other votes shall be taken by voice vote. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system print-out, the Speaker shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the print-out record and so advise the House.

(b) A motion to adjourn shall be decided without debate, and shall always be in order, except when the House is voting or some member is speaking; but a motion to adjourn shall not follow a motion to adjourn until debate or some other business of the House has intervened.

RULE 16. Motion to Table. — (a) A motion to table shall be seconded before the motion is put to the vote of the House and is in order except when a motion to adjourn is before the House.

(b) A motion to table shall be decided without debate.

(c) A motion to table a bill shall constitute a motion to table the bill and all amendments thereto.

(d) A motion to table an amendment shall not be construed as a motion to table the principal bill or any other amendment which has been offered thereto, and if such motion is carried, only the amendment shall lie upon the table.

(e) When a question has been tabled, it shall not thereafter be considered except on motion to remove from the table, approved by a two-thirds (⅔) vote.

RULE 17. Motion to Postpone Indefinitely. — A motion to postpone indefinitely is in order except when a motion to adjourn or to lay on the table is before the House. However, after one motion to postpone indefinitely has been decided, another motion to postpone indefinitely shall not be allowed at the same stage of the bill or proposition. When a question has been postponed indefinitely, it shall not thereafter be considered except on motion to place on the favorable calendar approved by a two-thirds (⅔) vote.

RULE 18. Motion to Reconsider. — (a) When a question has been decided, it is in order for any member to move for the reconsideration thereof, on the same or the succeeding legislative day; provided that if the vote by which the motion was originally decided was taken by a recorded vote, only a member of the majority may move for reconsideration.

(b) A motion to reconsider shall be determined by a majority vote, except a motion to reconsider a motion tabling a motion to reconsider, which shall require a two-thirds (⅔) vote.

(c) A motion to reconsider a motion made under Rules 16, 17, 37, 41 and 42 shall require a two-thirds (⅔) vote.

RULE 19. Previous Question. — (a) The previous question may be called only by the member submitting the report on the bill or other matter under consideration, by the member(s) introducing the bill or other matter under consideration, or by the member in charge of the measure, who shall be designated by the chairman of the committee reporting the same to the House at the time the bill or other matter under consideration is reported to the House or taken up for consideration.

(b) The previous question shall be as follows: "Shall the main question now be put?" When the call for the previous question has been decided in the affirmative by a majority vote of the House, the "main question" is on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration.

(c) The call for the previous question shall preclude all motions, amendments and debate, except the motion to adjourn or motion to table or motion to postpone indefinitely made prior to the determination of the previous question.

(d) If the previous question is decided in the negative, the main question remains under debate.

IV. VOTING

RULE 20. Use of Electronic Voting System. — (a) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal:

(1) All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal.

(2) All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 24(a) has been sustained.

(3) Both second and third readings of bills proposing amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina or ratifying resolutions amending the Constitution of the United States.

(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and a copy of the machine print-out of the votes shall be filed in the Principal Clerk's office. A copy of the machine print-out shall also be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection:

(1) Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading or if the reading occurs on a day or days following the second reading, all conference reports on public bills, all motions to lay public bills on the table, and all motions to postpone public bills indefinitely.

(2) Upon a call for division.

(3) Any other question upon direction of the Speaker or upon motion of any member supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, twenty seconds shall be allowed for voting on the question before the House, unless the Chair shall direct otherwise. The system shall be set to close automatically when that time has expired. After the system is closed, the Speaker may allow any member to vote until he orders the system locked. Once the system is locked, the vote shall be recorded and printed.

(d) The voting station at each member's desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the member to which the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a member's station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a member either to request that another person vote at the requesting member's station, or to vote at another member's station. The Speaker shall enforce this rule without exception.

(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Speaker shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: "All in favor vote 'aye'; all opposed vote 'no'; the Clerk will open the vote." After the allotted time for voting has elapsed, the Speaker shall say: "The Clerk will now lock the machine and record the vote." After the machine is locked and the vote recorded, the Speaker shall announce the vote and declare the result.

(f) One copy of the machine print-out of the vote record of all votes taken on the electronic system shall be filed in the office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Speaker ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, he shall announce that fact to the House and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the House require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the House, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All roll call votes shall be taken alphabetically. All other votes shall be taken by voice vote. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system print-out, the Speaker shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the print-out record and so advise the House.

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system, the motions are coded as follows:

1. To adjourn.
2. To lay on the table.
3. To postpone indefinitely.
4. Previous question.
5. To postpone to a day certain.
6. To commit.

11. Miscellaneous.

RULE 21. Voice Votes; Stating Questions. — When the electronic voting system is not used, the Speaker shall rise and put a question.

(b) The question shall be put in this form, namely, "Those in favor (as the question may be) will say 'Aye'," and after the affirmation voice has been expressed, "Those opposed will say 'No'."

RULE 22. Determining Questions. — Unless otherwise provided by the Constitution of North Carolina or by these rules, all questions shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present and voting.

RULE 23. Voting by Division. — Any member may call for a division of the members upon the question before the result of the vote has been announced. Upon a call for a division, the Speaker shall cause the number voting in the affirmative and in the negative to be determined. Upon a division and count of the House on any question, no member away from his seat shall be counted.

RULE 24. Roll Call Vote. — (a) Before a question is put, any member may call for the ayes and noes. If the call is sustained by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present, the question shall be decided by the ayes and noes upon a roll call vote.

(b) Every member who is in the Hall of the House when the question is put shall give his vote upon a call of the ayes and noes, unless the House for special reasons shall excuse him and no application to be excused from voting shall be entertained unless made before the call of the roll.

RULE 24.1. Separation of Propositions. — Any member may call for a question to be divided into two or more propositions to be voted on separately, and the Speaker shall determine whether the question admits of such a division.

RULE 25. Voting by Speaker. — In all elections the Speaker may vote. In all other instances he may exercise his right to vote, or he may reserve this right until there is a tie, but in no instance may he vote twice on the same question.

V. COMMITTEES

RULE 26. Committees Generally. — (a) All standing and select committees shall be appointed by the Speaker, unless otherwise specially ordered by the House.

H. R. 628, A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE 1976-77 BASKETBALL TEAM OF CAMPBELL COLLEGE.

Whereas, the 1976-77 basketball team of Campbell College, in the tradition established by the Fighting Camels over the years, compiled a record of 23 wins and 10 losses under head coach, Danny Roberts; and

Whereas, the 1976-77 Fighting Camels received national recognition and honors by going all the way to the finals of the N.A.I.A. Championship Tournament, played in Kansas City, Missouri; and

Whereas, the N.A.I.A. Championship Tournament is one of the most difficult and most outstanding of such basketball tournaments, with 32 district champions representing 507 teams competing; and

Whereas, in order to reach the championship game Campbell College had to win its District Tournament, entitling the team to represent District 29 in Kansas City, following which the team had to play five consecutive nights in competition against some of the most outstanding players and teams of the United States; and

Whereas, in addition to winning the Sportsmanship Trophy, two Campbell players, Sam Staggers and Don Whaley, were selected on the all-tournament team, and a third player, Don Laird, received a much cherished trophy awarded to the player demonstrating the most "hustle"; and

Whereas, Campbell College not only finished second but won the hearts of the fans in Kansas City as well as in North Carolina, and all across the nation;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. That the North Carolina House of Representatives, in recognition of the pride and honor they have brought to this State by their outstanding achievement in sports, offers this official expression of gratitude and congratulations to the players, coaches and staff of Campbell College.

Sec. 2. This resolution shall become effective upon adoption.

PRAYERS OFFERED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 1977

by

Dr. Albert G. Edwards

Wednesday, January 12, 1977

O great and good and loving God, may we be standing in Thy presence filled with the emotion of wonder.

For the veterans in the House may it be the wonder occasioned by the knowledge that enough persons love them, and trust them to give them another term.

For the rookies, as they sit and survey may it be the wonder born of the thought, "I made it! I made it!"

And mingled with the wonder may there be awe — that spirit of reverence which comes from the recognition that this is not a common place where we are assembled, but a holy place, a place set apart for a distinct and worthy purpose. By character, conduct and contribution, may each legislator further adorn and enhance the high purpose of this House.

We pray for the Speaker, Carl Stewart, that he may be given strength, knowledge and wisdom sufficient for the duties of his high office. May those he leads follow him thoughtfully, purposefully and honestly.

Our prayer we offer in the name of Jesus who said, "I am the light of the world, he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life." Amen.

Thursday, January 13, 1977

O God, true source of timeless truth and eternal life, we thank Thee that although there may not be corporate harmony there can be individual happiness.

Help all of us to remember that our true joy comes when we do right in the face of a strong desire to do wrong.

Our prayer is offered in the name of Jesus who said, "I am come that my joy might be in you and that your joy might be full." Amen.

Friday, January 14, 1977

O Sovereign God, we remember the inscription, "Valor is an uncommon virtue." Forgive that in the lives of those of us made in Thy image that valor is rare.

In the engagements in this House where the enemy may be self-interest and the ammunition will be words rather than bullets grant that Thy Holy Spirit will so operate within the lives of these men and women that valor will no longer be an uncommon but a common virtue.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus who was valiant unto death, Amen.

Tuesday, January 18, 1977

O Sovereign God by whose power we were created and by whose providence we are sustained, we may not meet in concord but we do meet in comfort, and that is something for which we are glad and grateful on a very chilly day.

And being reasonably comfortable may there be no sluggish minds or frozen emotions, and thus may all judgments made indicate that these men and women are functioning at their best, whatever their best may be.

And we pray in the name of Him who did His best gave His best. Amen.

Wednesday, January 19, 1977

Great God who dost work to keep this world in orderly orbit, but who has time and care to mark even the death of a sparrow, when oftimes we know not for what to pray we thank Thee for the remembrance of the words of Jesus: "Your heavenly Father knoweth all things of which ye have need even before ye ask him." Confidently we believe the assurance because every parent here knows how hard he or she tries to provide abundantly for the needs of sons and daughters. Help us then to remember You will do no less for us, and remembering may we have faith sufficient to live and work peacefully and powerfully.

In a Redeemer's Name, Amen.

Thursday, January 20, 1977

Almighty God, who has made and preserved us a nation, as we bow in prayer on this historic day, we thank Thee for President Gerald Ford, and for his honest, wholesome leadership which has done much to heal the wounds of our injured nation.

We pray for Jimmy Carter so soon to become our President and governmental leader. Abundantly hast Thou endowed him. May he remember that "unto whom much is given of him is much required," and as he gives his best to the leadership of our nation may his deeds serve well this nation and the world may his dreams reflect the words of the poet who wrote:

"Some men see things as they are and ask, why?
I dream things that never were and ask, why not?"

Our prayer is offered for the men and women of this House; may they ever obtain from Thee a wisdom deeper than their own a strength greater than their own a purpose higher than their own.

And we pray in the name of the Kingdom's Head, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Friday, January 21, 1977

Great God,
Our help in ages past
Our hope for years to come

And our faithful guide for this promised day, we thank You that You have placed most of us in families, may one of the joys of this days be the anticipation of reunion at this day's end.

But grant too, O God, that the anticipation of hours to come shall not occasion neglect of important matters of the moment. Rather, may their diligence to chosen work be the source of one of the joys of the weekend.

We thank you for the medical marvels of our day; may their use under Thy guiding hand bring increasing daily strength and health to Mr. Bright.

We pray in faith through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Monday, January 24, 1977

O God, mighty, merciful and majestic, we remember the message You have given us through the prophet Isaiah, "As the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may be seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish, and it shall prosper in the things whereto I send it." (Isaiah 55:10)

May Thy word to us this night and this week be: "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God who giveth to all men liberally, and it shall be given him." (James 1:5)

And now, thank you God, for getting us here, and because you have, may there be diligence in duty for the favor bestowed.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Tuesday, January 25, 1977

O Holy Father, Friend Unseen but Presence felt, as these men and women begin to feel the increasing pressure of their responsibilities, help them to remember that

A task without a vision is drudgery, a vision without a task makes a visionary,
But a vision with a task makes a missionary.

As political missionaries, enable them to determine the wise use of our State's human and natural resources so that as far as possible there may be equitable benefit for all.

In the name of Jesus, Amen.

Wednesday, January 26, 1977

Great God, whose love is constant, and whose presence is assuring,

We recognize that what is important here is not the work of the hands, but rather the thoughts of the mind. Therefore we pray in the words of the Psalmist:

"Search me O God and know my heart!
Try me and know my thoughts
And see if there be any selfish purpose in me
And lead me in the way everlasting." (Psalm 139:23,24)

Amen

Friday, January 28, 1977

Almighty God, in the doing of whose will there is our peace, and whose friendship is our joy, we thank You that You are more predictable than the Carolina basketball team and more dependable than the State basketball team. Thus may we be encouraged to heed the ancient words: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and rely not on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make straight your paths." (Proverbs 3:5,6) Amen

Monday, January 31, 1977

O Lord most mighty, perfect in holiness yet merciful in judgment, the day isn't as young as once it was and neither are we. Some will not mount up with wings as eagles unless the wings be those of an airplane. Some can't run unless it is for safety or personal pleasure. But all of us can walk, we can trudge along, performing with disciplined diligence the work at hand and enjoying the doing of it.

We pray for former Governor Holshouser and for families of members of the House who need Thy help as the Great Physician.

Be with Governor Hunt as he speaks this evening to a joint assembly and help all who are here to sit with energy.

In a Saviour's name, Amen.

Tuesday, February 1, 1977

O Faithful, Friendly, Fatherlike God, Thou hast promised to make Thy dwelling with those who seek Thee because they know they need Thee. Come with power and cast from us the devils of false fears and selfish ambitions.

Come with peace and enable us to know serenity in the midst of activity.
Come with knowledge and enable us to discern the true and the false.
Come with wisdom that will make all our judgments wise.
Come with love and help us to know the fellowship of the forgiven.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Wednesday, February 2, 1977

O merciful God, as these men and women confront issues the resolving of which will bring help to some and hardship to others, be Thou with them.

When burdens are greater than their strength and wisdom seems insufficient for worthy decisions enable them to recall the words of old: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? Why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God, for the eternal God is thy refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms." Amen.

Thursday, February 3, 1977

O Sovereign God, we recall that the Apostle Paul wrote to Timothy, "Alexander the coppersmith has done me great harm." Some of us believe that demons by the name of Deacons also are doing great harm. But we rejoice that regardless of our university loyalties that when we are loyal to Thee there is the assurance that You will do us good and not evil all the days of our lives.

We pray in the name of Jesus of whom the poet wrote, "If He hadn't come to do us good He wouldn't have come at all." Amen.

Friday, February 4, 1977

Almighty God, we come to Thee in the spirit of the Psalmist who said, "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits."

We thank you for this new day. We thank you that we are "fearfully and wonderfully made." That we have eyes with which to see, ears with which to hear, voices with which to respond, minds with which to probe, hands with which to touch, and memory by which there are recollections that both bless and burn.

Since it is possible that in the world to come there will also be print-outs, with Thy help may we use Thy blessings to make these print-outs as worthy and commendable as possible.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Monday, February 7, 1977

God of our fathers, and our God too, we thank You that day and night are both alike to You and that each is Thy gift to the deserving and the undeserving.

As these men and women begin another week of legislative work be Thou unto them such a helpful presence that when they know they are wrong they will be willing to change, when they know they don't know they will diligently seek for truth, and when they are right keep them from that ugly spirit of self-righteousness which makes other people want to punch them on the nose or kick them in the pants.

We pray in the name of Jesus who was so lovingly righteous that the worst of sinners were attracted to Him. Amen.

Tuesday, February 8, 1977

Great God, our refuge and our strength and our ever present help in every time of need, Thou knowest that these men and women face a time of momentous decision.

Give them the courage to withstand the temptation to be motivated by political self-preservation.

May the only fear they know be the fear of knowing what they believe is right and failing to do it.

And may the men and women who believe they possess the truth not use that truth as a shillelagh to subdue but as a torch to light the way for those who may be in the darkness of uncertainty.

We pray for those who occupy the gallery. In the midst of their convictions and exuberance help them to listen without intrusion or interruption.

It's a lot, Lord, to ask, but we do so because nothing is impossible to Thee, as You have demonstrated in Jesus. Amen.

Wednesday, February 9, 1977

O God, great Lover of our souls, we pray this morning in the words of the late Peter Marshall, "As we express our own ideas and listen to the ideas of those who differ with us, may we be humble enough to think about the third idea — Thine."

Since Thy will is more difficult to follow than our will, grant strength to those who seek to embrace Thy will and enable them to know the joy of doing right in the face of a strong desire to do wrong.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Thursday, February 10, 1977

Great Father of Glory, Pure Father of light, already a great decision has been made by these men and women with which they will have to spend the rest of their lives.

And it sobers us, our Father, to realize, that on third reading there are at the most sixty seconds for recorded decision, and then the rest of their lives to remember it.

To the end that all seconds for recorded voting may be wisely used,

Quicken their thinking,
Sharpen their sensitivity, and Strengthen and increase their courage to commit themselves to what they believe is true and worthy.

We pray in the name of Him who didn't live long, but who had such wonderful things to remember as long as His earthly life endured. Amen.

Friday, February 11, 1977

Good Lord and Father of mankind, for many of these men and women this has not been an easy week, and even the forthcoming hours at home this weekend may not bring reprieve from confrontations or relief from expressions of approval or disapproval. But whatever the encounter give them the grace to act with love rather than to react in volatile self-defense.

Some of us even dare to pray this morning, and pray sincerely, that you will put it upon the heart of Mrs. Carter, the wife of the President of the United States, to be as interested in fuel for factories and industries as she is in the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment.

We pray in the name of Jesus whose ministry was to the total person, Amen.

Monday, February 14, 1977

O Gracious God may many, if not all, within this chamber be able to say in the words of the hymn writer, "Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee, God of glory, Lord of love."

Great God, we also pray that You will keep us from being puppets who are always controlled by outward forces; help us to be persons who seek light from without, but also use their own minds to think and who are powered to action by their own wills.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Wednesday, February 16, 1977

Our Father who art in Heaven, and by Thy promise, with us here, our pause for prayer is our acknowledgment of dependence, and well we know our physical, mental and moral lacks and needs.

But keep us in remembrance that dependence implies responsibility. Thus may the men and women of this House cause Thy gifts of strengthened moral backbone, broader mental vision, and increased physical vigor be used not selfishly but for servanthood.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Thursday, February 17, 1977

Merciful God, we come to Thee in the spirit of the Psalmist who said, "'Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits."

We thank you, Our Father, that you are never guilty of child abandonment. We may saunter, visit gaming rooms, and otherwise play loose with our lives, but You keep on loving us.

Help us not take advantage of Thy boundless love, rather may the knowledge of Your love keep us steadfast, hopeful and resolute. By such conduct may we find it easier to love ourselves, for only as we love ourselves can we love others, live with others, and serve others.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Friday, February 18, 1977

We come our Heavenly Father in the spirit of the Psalmist who wrote: "O give thanks unto God for He is good; for His steadfast loves endures forever."

We do not presume to make prayer a substitute for dedicated work and diligent thought; we pray for the implementing of our physical and mental resources because we recognize that if our tasks are commensurate with our abilities we would not be capable of even being "doorkeepers in the house of the Lord." Amen.

Monday, February 21, 1977

Eternal God as we pause to pray we remember the words of the Psalmist, "The Lord is good, his mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth to all generations."

As these men and women become immersed once more in "the great and honorable adventure of politics," although we know not what the demands or experiences of this week will be, help us to remember what we know about Thee, that "Thou art able to do exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think."

We would be remiss our Father if we did not thank Thee this night for the recovery and return of our Sergeant-At-Arms. We also bring to Thee in prayer Representative Ward and Representative Bright; may they know Thy healing touch and may their families know Thy helping hand.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

INVOCATION

February 22, 1977

by The Reverend John P. Bradley
President of Belmont Abbey College

Almighty God, look with favor on the members of this House gathered together here today. Freely elected to carry out the business of the people of our State, they have courageously assumed a heavy burden of responsibility as they strive to make the right decisions in the resolution of many perplexing issues. More than most of us, therefore, they need Thy powerful and constant assistance, Heavenly Father, in the exercise of their important office. We ask Thee, then, to grant them a wisdom that is nourished by high principle, a fortitude that is tempered by prudence, a vision of the future that transcends the heavy pressures for instant solutions to complex problems. We know that, fortified with these virtues, dear Lord, they not only will serve Thy people well, but in doing so will serve Thee well also.

Asking for these things, Heavenly Father, we rely, as always, on Thy gracious kindness. Amen.

Wednesday, February 23, 1977

O Lord our God, we recall the verse from the hymn-writer:

"This is our Father's world!
O let me ne'er forget
That though the wrong seems oft so strong,
God is the Ruler yet."

Grant, we pray, that these lines may be more than beautiful words; may they be for us a strong belief, since such belief makes our faith strong conviction rather than feeble sentiment. Amen.

Thursday, February 24, 1977

O Sovereign Lord of men and nations, we thank Thee for the promise "that as the rain and the snow descendeth from heaven and returneth not thither, but watereth the ground that there may be seed for the sower and bread for the eater, so shall Thy word be that goeth forth out of Thy mouth; it shall not return unto Thee void." May the word we hear today be the ancient but eternal message of Proverbs:

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and depend not solely on your own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge God and He shall direct thy paths." Amen.

Monday, February 28, 1977

Eternal God we thank Thee that Thou hast promised us

Thy presence for companionship
Thy mercy for our failures
Thy strength for our weakness and Thy wisdom for our ignorance.

Enable the men and women of this House to be unto the State of North Carolina, salt and light and leaven.

Salt which will preserve and purify what is good, light that will reveal strength and weakness, and leaven which will enliven.

Through Christ, Amen.

Tuesday, March 1, 1977

Eternal God, whose nature is love, whose ways are wise, and whose purpose is good, we bring to Thee in prayer Representative James and his family; as they adjust to the loss of a wife and mother, grant them the companionship of Thy presence, the consolation of Thy love, and the strength of that hope which proclaims that "life is ever lord of death, and love can never lose its own."

As the men and women of this House give themselves to work within this chamber grant them sharpened minds, sensitive spirits, and the ability to speak with words which are soft but sincere. Thus when day's end is theirs may each member have good reason to be so pleased with himself or herself that there will be that inner peace which is joy indeed. Amen.

Thursday, March 3, 1977

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, the actions of this week remind us of the man who said, "When you see a man walking down the street with a smile on his face, you dinna know whether something good has happened to him or something evil has happened to his neighbor."

So we pray that those made glad by the Senate vote on E.R.A. may temper their happiness with humility; may those to whom the Senate vote brought anguish be enabled to adorn their anguish with the beautiful virtue of magnanimity. We ask this, Our Father, because there are significant issues yet to be debated and decided, and we would not want them to become the victims of division. To that end grant us a new measure of wholeness and unselfish purpose.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Friday, March 4, 1977

Eternal God, help us to recall the words of Thine which are so aptly applicable to preachers and politicians: "If a man think himself to be religious, and bridles not his tongue, his religion is vain."

So in this time of emphasis on conservation help us to conserve our speech and thereby may we generate more light and create less heat.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Monday, March 7, 1977

Almighty God, Thou who art great and greatly to be praised, in this past weekend may these men and women have found retreat from the pressures of last week and resources for the demands of this week.

As they meet and debate and decide help each one to be patient with the shortcomings of others, proud of the virtues of others, happy with the achievements of others, and grateful for the friendship of others.

Our prayer we offer in the name of Jesus, the would-be Friend of all, Amen.

Tuesday, March 8, 1977

Ever living and always loving God, we thank You that Your love for us does not depend on our behaviour. We may disappoint You, but we rejoice that we cannot destroy Your love for us.

Because these men and women of this House know of Your dependable love for them, may they then be able to care for each other; may they care not only for those who help them but also who hurt them; may they learn to care not only for those who encourage them but who also embarrass them; may they also learn to care for those who disparage them as well as those who praise them.

We ask it in the name of Jesus, Amen.

Thursday, March 10, 1977

Great God, mighty in power and magnificently matchless in all Thy ways we come to Thee in prayer with the words of the poet:

"For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
Lord of all, to Thee we raise
These our prayers of grateful praise."

And grant, O God, that we may recall when we are grateful enough, we are always good enough, and may those in this House who seek after goodness prove to the world that good people don't necessarily finish last. Rather may their lives remind us that one day the God-tamed, the God-broken, shall inherit the earth. Amen.

Friday, March 11, 1977

Eternal Father, strong to save, just as these men and women have adopted rules for the orderly functioning of this House of Representatives, grant that all of us may remember the rules Thou hast given for the orderly and fruitful ordering of our own lives — "Thou shalt love the Lord Thy God, with all thy heart, with all thy soul, with all thy strength, with all thy mind, and thy neighbors as Thyself." (Luke 10:27) Amen.

Monday, March 14, 1977

Great God, from whom we come and unto whom one day we shall return, in these days of our earthly pilgrimage, help us to live with the assurance of the Psalmist when he wrote:

"The Lord is our light and our salvation!
Whom then shall we fear?
The Lord is the strength of our lives
Of whom then shall we be afraid?"

Amen

Tuesday, March 15, 1977

We thank you, our Father, for the evident comradeship and concern for each other which characterizes the members of the House; may their expressions of concern for those whose lives are touched by sickness or sorrow bring comfort and joy to the discomforted.

We also thank Thee for nature's magnificent response to rain and sun and warmth. May the profusion of beauty not diminish our sense of wonder, but may it move us to say with the Psalmist, "This is the Lord's doing and it is wonderful in our eyes."

Through Christ, Amen.

Wednesday, March 16, 1977

It strengthens us, Our Father, to remember it is written:

"Our help is from the Lord who made heaven and earth."

Great God, we know nothing of the furnishings of Heaven or the temperature of Hell, but we do know something about this planet, earth, and we thank Thee that to many of us it is a place of wonder and of worth.

May the men and women of this House so order their decisions that all participation in committees and all involvement on this Floor will never harm but only help this portion of Thy world which is their particular responsibility.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Thursday, March 17, 1977

Our Father and our Friend, we thank Thee that ours is a nation which can truly affirm, E Pluribus Unum — out of many, one.

On this Saint Patrick's Day we rejoice with the Irish as they visibly and noisily remind us that they are a significant portion of the "many". Yet some of us are sufficiently selfish to pray that some of the Irish will lose a goodly portion of their fighting spirit before they face this evening the lads who wear Carolina Blue.

As we recall our history enable the men and women of this House who come from the east and the west, and the north and the south to discover a unity as they seek to promote the common welfare of the people of this state.

We pray in the name of Jesus who came from an obscure village but whose ministry was to all the world, Amen.

Friday, March 18, 1977

Great God,

about whom we talk so much,
and with whom some of us walk so little,

when we yearn for life without trials, days without difficulties,

hours without decisions,
and a legislature without lobbyists, help us to remember that in this world seldom has there been lasting gain without much pain.

We pray in the name of Jesus who said, "Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross DAILY and follow me." Amen.

Monday, March 21, 1977

We thank you, God, for your good shepherding of us this past weekend. Knowing our tendency to errant behaviour it may have been more of a task than most of us readily recognize.

As these men and women face another week of responsibility and opportunity may there be on occasion the recollection of the words of a much loved hymn:

"When upon life's billows you are tempest tossed,
When you are discouraged thinking all is lost.
Count your many blessings, name them one by one,
And it will surprise you what the Lord has done."

Amen

Tuesday, March 22, 1977

Father and Friend, we thank Thee for the happiness which so frequently is characteristic of this House. We thank Thee that these men and women demonstrate that they can disagree without being disagreeable; that they can contend without being contentious.

At all times when they assemble in the chamber enable these Representatives to prove that although they are not always of one mind they are men and women of sound mind.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Wednesday, March 23, 1977

Great God, whose gifts are good and perfect and given without regret, we thank You for the gift of the mind. Some of us pride ourselves on being openminded, but grant it shall be a virtue and not a vice, for it is easy to be so openminded that we fall for everything and stand for nothing.

Grant to the men and women of this House such a measure of discernment that they will know when to open their minds, when to shut their minds, and when to speak their minds. Amen.

Thursday, March 24, 1977

Great God, Ancient of Days yet new and appropriate to every day, Thy word encourages us to find joy and hope in believing. Because these men and women believe they have been chosen for high and responsible office by the people they represent may they find joy and hope and fulfillment through their work and from their work.

In the name of Jesus, who knew the joys and hardship of work, Amen.

Friday, March 25, 1977

O God, our Creator, we thank Thee that through all our days you are willing and able to do "exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think."

O God, our Redeemer, we thank Thee that Thou art always giving and forgiving, and ever seeking to lead us from darkness into Thy marvelous light.

O God, our Companion, we thank Thee that we never walk alone, or stand alone, or fall alone when we endeavor "to do justly, to love mercy, and walk humbly with our God." Amen.

Monday, March 28, 1977

Here we are again, our Father,

June Bug
Silver Streak
Fleet Chief
Lucky 13
Seat 83
Lady Guilford Church Key
Teddy Bear
House Mother
Democrat
The Listener
Big Ed

And all the rest of us; and we thank You we have been preserved to be here.

Lord, if you had a "handle" we're not sure what it would be but it seems as if "The Good Shepherd" would be appropriate, and we thank you that your promise of being the Good Shepherd who never fails or forsakes — always is fulfilled.

Lord, you know the teams for which we pray tonight. May each man on both teams be able to play his best so that the winner can be justificably proud and the loser, although disappointed, at least not ashamed. Amen.

Wednesday, March 30, 1977

Eternal God, after all the discussion about judges and their election help us to remember that Thou who art our faithful friend today will on some tomorrow be our Judge.

At this mid-day hour some are wearied by hours of committee involvement and some are drowsy because they ate too much, and probably most of us have reason to pray in the words of the hymn:

"Revive us again!
Fill each heart with Thy love;
May each soul be rekindled,
With fire from above."

In the name of Jesus, Amen.

Thursday, March 31, 1977

Our Father and our Friend, none of us here are alike, and for this some people are thankful, knowing that the good thing about some of us is that there is only one of us.

Although we are not alike, we have this in common, that we need Thee. Our prayer is that Thou wilt come to us with all Your enriching and enabling power so that those of us who can honestly say, "I'se ain't much," may also be able to say, "I'se ain't much, but I'se all I got."

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Friday, April 1, 1977

It is easy, our Father, to become rich in things and poor in soul;

to forget we cannot live by bread alone; exist,
yes, but never live;
to become the victims of tunnel vision and never see the broad vistas;
to feel alone, loveless and unblessed.

From all such defects of mind, great God deliver us, and thereby may we come to be as wise in the ways of God as we are in the way of men. Amen.

Monday, April 4, 1977

The day Thou gavest Lord is ended, but night beckons these men and women not unto rest but unto work. We thank Thee that day and night are both alike to Thee, and that You have given us the assurance that mercies shall be as fresh and plentiful in the evening as they are in the morning.

Thus may these men and women give themselves to the tasks of another week, thankful for the privilege of high office, mindful that high duties require divine dedication, rejoicing in the camaraderie of this House, and determined to set such an example before the Pages of this week that in the lives of some of these lads and lassies will be born the desire to serve their State in this House in years to come, not because they see serious errors to be corrected, but because they are witnesses to good government they long to see continued.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Tuesday, April 5, 1977

Great God, Thou knowest what is in our hearts before it is on our tongues, and sometimes what is on our tongues betrays the evil that is in our hearts.

Thus may it be, our Father, that when we are sick of ourselves,

shamed by our littleness,
and annoyed by our selfishness, then may we recall for our cleansing and comfort that " a broken and a contrite heart Thou wilt not reject," and that there is "forgiveness with Thee that Thou mayest be reverenced." Amen.

Wednesday, April 6, 1977

Keep us in remembrance, our Heavenly Father, of the words:

"Every man makes his contribution to life;
if he doesn't make it when he lives, he makes it when he dies."

As these men and women endeavour to make their contribution in the days of their earthly pilgrimage enable them to find deep thought a satisfaction, sound conviction a thrill,

and self-denial a joy.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Heavenly Father, help us to remember the words,

"Yesterday is but a Dream,
Tomorrow is but a Vision,
But today well lived makes every yesterday a Dream of Happiness
Every tomorrow a Vision of Hope —
Look well therefore to this day."

Amen

(Prayer by Representative Frances E. Setzer)

Thursday, April 7, 1977

We thank Thee, Lord, for life and hope and health and strength.

We thank Thee also for appetites we enjoy satisfying thoughts we enjoy expressing, debates we enjoy enlivening, and decisions we enjoy making.

On days when there are no such joys, and when experiences seem to blight rather than to bless, enable us to recall that such days are few compared to those which delight, and recollecting may we become glad and grateful.

In the name of Jesus, Amen.

Friday, April 8, 1977

Deliver us, O God, from tunnel vision. That faulty vision which keeps us from beholding the sunlit sky or the starry heavens.

And as Thou dost broaden our vision help us to see what we need to see on this Good Friday. We are always conscious, and sometimes angrily and spitefully so, of what has been done TO us; help us on this particular day to see Calvary and recall to our joy and blessing what had been done FOR us.

In the name of Jesus, Amen.

Monday, April 11, 1977

Sovereign God,

May our hearts still thrill to the beauty of Easter and may our hearts still sing with the joy of Easter.

But when the beauty fades and the song dies, keep vibrantly alive in our minds the truth of Easter, "Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world." Amen.

Tuesday, April 12, 1977

Great God, I must go shopping. I am completely out of generosity and want to get some more. I also want to exchange the self-satisfaction that I picked up the other day for some real humility; they say it wears better.

I want to look for tolerance, which is worn as a wrap this season. I saw some samples of kindness and I'm a little low on that right now — one can't get too much of it.

I must try to match some patience. I saw it on a friend and it was so becoming. I must remember to get my sense of humor mended ,and keep my eyes open for inexpensive goodness.

Yes, I must go shopping today, Amen.

Representative George Preston Cullipher.

Friday, April 15, 1977

Eternal and Almighty God, there are times when the burden of responsibility is large and our shoulders are not as broad as they ought to be, the mystery of life is deep and our minds are shallow.
temptation is persistent and stubborn and our wills are weak.

Thus, it is, our Father, that through prayer we seek strength greater than our burden, intelligence sufficient for the mysteries, and wills stronger than the temptations, and unto the end that we shall not grow weary in well doing.

Through Christ, Amen.

Monday, April 18, 1977

Eternal God, to the best of our knowledge Thou has fulfilled in this past weekend your ancient but ever appropriate promise, "in thy going out and coming in I will be with Thee."

On this Monday evening we also pray in the words of the poet:

"Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
'Til all our strivings cease;
Take from our hearts
The strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace."

Amen

Wednesday, April 20, 1977

O matchless and Almighty God we thank Thee that Thou hast given us reason for praise by returning to our midst Representative Allen Ward. But whether we have been delivered from sickness or kept in health, enable us to pray in the words of the Psalmist:

"Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And all that is within me, bless
His holy name.
Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and forget not all His benefits.
Who forgiveth all thine inequities.
Who healeth all thy diseases,
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction,
Who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies,
Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things, so that thy youth is renewed like the eagles." (Psalm 103)

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all these benefits, Amen.

Our Father and Our God . . .
Thou who art the author of existence,

We humbly come before Thee in this hour to acknowledge thy presence in our lives and in this chamber.

Help us now to achieve a vital relationship with Thee and with others.
We thank Thee for our faith that lifts us in times of doubt and steadies us in time of test and strain.

We thank Thee for these women and men who serve with dignity the cause of justice and progress.
We pray Thy guidance as they wade through a maze of facts to seek the truth and what is right.
Sustain them in their effort to take us from where we are in North Carolina to where we need to be.

We ask that Thy Spirit may have free reign in our hearts.
Grant us the ability to perceive our problems,
the compassion to understand them,
and the courage to be a part of the answer.

We pray for a high boiling point so that when things don't go right for us at home at work, or in committee,
that we might, through Thy help, survive the crisis of temper and the depression of bad judgment.
Grant Thy mercy, grace and patience to all who are gathered in this chamber of laws.

Thou knowest us as brother and Father, renew right spirits within us and forgive us our sins,
Just as the sun rose this day to wipe away the darkness of night, may Thy love and mercy dawn upon our hearts to give us new life, new light and new hope.

Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(Prayer by Dr. Michael C. Blackwell, First Baptist Church, Carthage, North Carolina)

Friday, April 22, 1977

Great God, Thou art infinite, eternal, and unchangeable, on days when there is much to make us hesitate to make us doubt to make us confused

enable us to recall the words, "I know WHOM I have believed," and may the recollection of our beliefs be light for our paths and wisdom for our minds.

As the sun brightens and beautifies this day may He who is the Son of Righteousness cause

His warming love,
His strengthening presence and His healing words to bathe with peace the lives of Carl Stewart, and his mother and all in her family, unto the end that they shall know again as they have known before that "earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal." Amen.

Monday, April 25, 1977

We acknowledge Thee, our heavenly Father, as the ultimate source of all Law and Grace, and rejoice that in an adult world, Thou hast taught us ultimate truth in the Person of a little Babe. "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder."

Bless these legislators to know that their ultimate mandate is from God. As they deliberate tonight, may the actions they take be decisions of conscience . . . not consensus.

In the name of Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Prayer by The Reverend James Cammack, Snyder Memorial Baptist Church, Fayetteville, N. C.

Tuesday, April 26, 1977

There must be days, our Father, when these men and women wish they were computerized so that the information fed to them by lobbyists and fellow legislators might be consumed and then the proper answers spew forth.

Since this is not so, and in our wisest moments, we would not wish it so, grant to these men and women the compensating gifts of energy to listen capacity for reason coverage of conviction and then the joy which is the fruit of reasoned conviction and sturdy stand.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Wednesday, April 27, 1977

Almighty God, because man is what he remembers, help us to remember that a clam never has a nervous breakdown because it has no significant nervous system. Help us to remember that the sign of manhood and womanhood at their best is strong sensitivity to the needs of others.

When such sensitivity creates involvement, sacrifice and sorrow, strengthen and establish by the remembrance that it was said by Jesus, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

In His Name, Amen.

Thursday, April 28, 1977

God, Our Father,

We pause to pray, not simply because it is an appropriate way to begin this meeting, but because deep within, we realize the need for the help that only you can give.

Look with your special favor and blessing on the men and women in this Legislature today. Guide them as they make decisions that affect us all. Give them clear thinking and minds when the issues seem confused. Help them to always choose the best when second or third best might seem more expedient. Spare them from the temptation to just go along when it means compromising their own integrity. Deliver them from the pressures that would cloud sound judgment. Save this body from the over-zealous that would act too quickly and the cold feet that would not move at all. Free them from the controlling myth that the new must always be better and the old must be outdated. Give to these men and women a dream and vision for this great state and her people that would enhance the quality of life for us all, and give them the courage and energy to work for its fulfillment.

May the issues discussed and decided in this legislative body and committees today be in keeping with your will and purposes. Send your blessing and guidance upon the members of this House and Senate, the Governor of our State and the Administrative officers that together we might move forward as the people of God in the strong name of Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

Prayer offered by:

The Reverend Glen Holt, First Baptist Church
Old Street, Fayetteville, N. C.

Friday, April 29, 1977

Almighty God, for those who believe in the power of prayer grant us the honest spirit of him who wrote:

"It's not my brother or my sister,
But it's me, O, Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer."

And since we pray because we believe, help us to trust Thy word, and may the word we hear this day be Thy word through the prophet Isaiah:

"When thou passest through the waters,
I will be with thee;
And through the rivers,
the waters may come up to your chin but it will never flow over your head." (Isaiah 42:3)

Amen

Monday, May 2, 1977

O God, our Creator, we acknowledge you as the giver of all life and the source of all truth, justice, peace and beauty. While we may confess many creeds, with many symbols, our humanness bends in humility and service to Your Mysterious Reality. We pause to acknowledge your presence in the midst of this legislative assembly and realize that your will is the only sovereign rule over history and the history of our individual lives.

Grant that this citizen legislature of this great state may be of one mind to establish justice and promote the welfare of all people regardless of color, creed, place or persuasion.

Endow each man and woman here with clear vision, purer motivation and a stronger will to do that which they already know in their hearts and minds to be the right.

Where there is brokenness, let us be instruments of wholeness
Where there is hatred — love;
Where there is oppression — freedom;
Where there is injury — pardon;
Where there is rejection — acceptance.

Endow us to be thankful for all that we have and have become through your grace, and finally move us to continue to grow into maturity of personhood and oneness of humanity until your world becomes a peaceful global village that practices the ideals each of us profess to believe.

In the blessed love and mystery that moves each of us to create, love, struggle, laugh and cry . . . we make our prayer. So be it. Amen.

Prayer by Dr. Harold E. Wright, Central United Methodist Church
Concord, North Carolina

Tuesday, May 3, 1977

Great God, majestic and merciful, Thou hast given us not only hearts to love Thee but also minds with which to serve Thee, and oftimes the toil of the brain is so much more arduous than the toil of the hands.

There are issues, our Father, about which these men and women need only ask, is it needed?

is it fair?
is it workable?

But today there are issues about which these men and women must ask that question, which can be difficult indeed to answer, Is it right?

May the men and women who are convinced that they know the right speak not only with conviction but also with clarity, so that those who are confused may be led into comprehension and comprehending, may they vote with conviction; having so done, may they then know the peace which the world cannot give and which it cannot take away, Amen.

Wednesday, May 4, 1977

O God of love, O King of peace, without Thy wondrous and sufficient help, this day's time in this chamber will be as the day after Thanksgiving or the day after Christmas; the day after the day when the carcass has been stripped of most of its meat and what remains is hash.

But well we know that hash in the hands of good cooks can be satisfying and enjoyable; so we ask that Thou wilt fill these men and women with fresh purpose and renewed determination that the discussion of the day will be pertinent and enlightening, and through it all enable all of us to recall Thy message through the prophet Micah, "What is required of thee, O man, but to do justly and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with Thy God." Amen.

Thursday, May 5, 1977

Father of mercies, and God of all comfort, Thou knowest and we know that many of the citizens of our State will never know, and some will never care to know, how these men and women have worked in these past days to achieve for their State what each believes is right in his or her sight.

Some already know the agony of defeat as they have seen principles long cherished and firmly held rejected; we pray that Thou wilt lessen their pain, increase their peace,

and keep them strong crusaders for their cause.

Others, Lord, begin to know something of the ecstasy of victory. Enable the thoughtful expressions of this day to improve what may already be good, unto the end that those who commit heinous crimes and are convicted shall know that the State of North Carolina is motivated not by cold vengeance, but by just retribution. Amen.

Friday, May 6, 1977

Great God, who hast brought to us the undeserved blessings of the brightness and beauty and opportunities of another day, it may be that many members of this House rejoice to see the end of this legislative week. If they know within themselves that in this past week they have endeavored to do so what they believe is right in Thy sight then may their weariness be compensated for by Thy twin blessings of joy and peace.

We pray this morning for Mrs. Geile, the secretary to the Speaker. As she waits by the bedside of her son may she know the undergirding support of the prayers of these men and women, and may she know the strengthening presence of Him who said, "I am with thee always, everywhere." Amen.

Monday, May 9, 1977

(Prayer at joint session in State Capitol)

Eternal God, by whom all things were first begun, in whose name and for whose purpose the Republic of the United States was born, and for whose glory the state of North Carolina was created, we assemble in a chamber which has probably seen the democratic process at its worst and its best.

We thank Thee for men, some still with us, some remembered and some forgotten, who in this place were motivated by worthy vision, upheld the truth,

loved honesty,
and practiced charity.

For the men and women who follow in their train we also give our thanks. May the words, "In God We Trust," be found not only on their coins but also in their hearts. And may such trust enable them to become good men and women, for only as such can they be good leaders as elected representatives of the citizens of North Carolina.

Our prayer is offered in the name of Jesus, the pioneer and trailblazer of our faith, Amen.

Monday, May 9, 1977

O Sovereign God, perfect in holiness, yet merciful in judgment and magnanimous in forgiveness, we thank Thee that Thou dost send the blessing and benediction of night and day upon all men whether we be wise or foolish good or bad thankful or ungrateful.

As these men and women resume the responsibilities of another week grant them Thy blessings of good hearing good sense good judgment,

and all for the purpose that activity, whether of the mind or the mouth, will lead to accomplishment. Amen.

Tuesday, May 10, 1977

Incomparable God, Thou who art abundant in mercy and sufficient in grace, there are days when we affirm with the Psalmist:

"When I consider thy heavens; the moon and the stars which Thou hast ordained, what is man that Thou art mindful of him or the son of man that Thou visitest him?"

And yet it is to us, seeming specks in the universe, that thou hast said,

"Ye are the light of the world —
"Ye are the salt of the earth."

O God, so fill these men and women with knowledge and power, that they will be bright enough to lead us in new and worthy ways and salty enough to preserve the best of the past.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Wednesday, May 11, 1977

Great God, there's something of a zoo inside each one of us:

We lumber like elephants who know not their own strength, we jump on people like lions and tigers,
we seek attention like apes and baboons, we slither like snakes, and at times we have the grace of the gazelle.

And this is what amazes us, our Father, you love untiringly and unceasingly this menagerie which each one of us is. May the knowledge of such love keep us striving to improve so that we may be easier to live with and better to work with, Amen.

Thursday, May 12, 1977

O God, awesome and omnipotent, come with Thy power and enable us to be the master of the demons and devils which ever strive to master us.

Come with Thy grace that an inner attractiveness may compensate for that outward ugliness which is a feature of many of us.

Come with Thy wisdom that decisions may be made with an intelligence greater than our own.

Come with Thy love that will unite us in the great fellowship of the forgiven. Amen.

Friday, May 13, 1977

Great God, matchless in might and inexhaustible in love, we recall the words of the Psalmist:

"The heavens declare the glory of God
And the firmament showeth his handiwork
Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night showeth knowledge." (Psalm 19)

Grant, O God, that just as the world honors its Maker, and just as this magnificent building within whose walls we meet honors its architect, so may our lives and deeds and words proclaim to all who see and hear that "The Lord which made us is divine." Amen.

Monday, May 16, 1977

Sovereign God, well we know that what concerns us concerns Thee. Thou knowest that some of these men and women who have particular interest in rural areas are acquainted with the vital need for rain. Thou hast taught us to ask and it will be given; thus, in Thine own time may there come the heaven sent moisture which will refresh the good land and make fruitful the labors of our farmers.

As these men and women resume the responsibilities of another week may they know anew that there is a mighty power under them, a great and all-sufficient care around them, a tremendous opportunity before them and an eternal destiny ahead of them.

Our prayer is offered in a Redeemer's Name, Amen.

Wednesday, May 18, 1977

Great God, source of timeless truth and eternal life, we recall the words of the Psalmist, (27)

> "The Lord is my light and my salvation,
> Whom then shall I fear?
> The Lord is the strength of my life;
> of whom then shall I be afraid,"

May this strength

> divide our troubles > multiply our peace > square our efficiency and thereby help us to put to good use that precious commodity which is Time. Amen.

Thursday, May 19, 1977

Almighty God, we acknowledge that you have given us this land as a goodly heritage. We rejoice and give thanks for the bounty of our harvests, the products of our industry, the spirit of our people and the integrity of our government.

Stretch forth your right hand of protection to guard our great State of North Carolina. Purify our hearts to see and to love the truth. Give wisdom to our leaders and steadfastness to our people.

May we indeed be people of being — as our motto proclaims — People of Substance, of Realities, of Justice, Honesty and Truth, then to be people of appearance, of seeming, of sham and pretense.

Where we are broken in spirit, mend us.
Where we are unrighteousness in judgment, judge us.
Where we are blind to need and feeling other than our own, restore our sight.

Where we are deaf to human cries, open our ears.
Where we are lame because of misdirected loyalties, help us to move again.

Bestow Your blessings upon this session of our Legislature that goodness and truth, justice and love may reign.

In the Name of the Mighty God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — who was and is and is to come. Amen and Amen.

The Reverend Robert Burns, Howard Memorial Presbyterian Church
Tarboro, North Carolina

Friday, May 20, 1977

O God, ever giving and always forgiving, Thou dost satisfy our needs at divinely appointed times, and so we thank Thee for the restoring rain of last night.

But whether Thy blessings be rain or reason sunshine or strength night or naps day or dessert

we manifest our gratitude in the words of Charles Wesley:

"What shall I render unto God
For all His mercy's store?
I'll take the gifts He hath bestowed,
And humbly ask for more."

And we can so pray, Our Father, because asking for more is as often a sign of gratitude as well as greed.

In the name of Him Who is ever ready to give more than we can ask, Amen.

Thursday, May 26, 1977

O God of love, O King of peace, this moment for prayer is brief, but because much of our time is spent in the valleys where there is so much bickering and jockeying and pettiness, may this brief moment be a spiritual vantage point from which we see all things in clear perspective.

Let it also be the moment in which we pray in the words of the poet:

"Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our feverish ways.
Reclothe us in our rightful minds,
In purer lives thy service find,
In deeper reverence praise."

Amen

Friday, May 27, 1977

O God, in whom to hope is to have the assurance awakened that "all things work together for good to them that love Thee," help us to recall the words of Pascal:

"It is a joy to be on a ship on a storm lashed sea, when one is sure that the ship will not sink."

Our Ship of State has weathered many storms, and on days when there is disagreement between the Captain and the First Mate, enable these particular members of the crew to think right speak right and act right;

to rejoice that they have been called to the Kingdom for such a time as this; to be thankful that Thy grace is sufficient for all needs; and to strive that they be "workmen who needeth not to be ashamed." Amen.

Monday, May 30, 1977

O King of Kings and Lord of Lords, from whom we come and unto whom we go, and from whose love neither death nor life, nor things present nor things to come, can ever separate us, may that knowledge so possess and control our minds that we shall be hopeful when things go wrong, persevering when things are difficult, cheerful when things are tense, and serene when things are irritating.

In a Redeemer's name, Amen.

Tuesday, May 31, 1977

Majestic and Almighty God, who made the mountains rise, and spread the flowing seas abroad,

and built the lofty skies, recognizing that all sunshine makes a desert, and that too much rain makes a swamp, we thank Thee that the control of the elements of nature are in Your hands.

We would ask, our Father, for your help in controlling the elements within us that our minds may be protected against dry-rot, and that our mouths be kept from issuing a torrent of driveling words.

In the name that is above all names, Amen.

Wednesday, June 1, 1977

Almighty God, creator and giver of life: you have charged each of us with the care of your universe, both people and things. We are called to serve you in many ways. As this body gathers today, we pray that you lead them in their work that their decisions may be according to your will. Direct their discussion and debate that it may be in the spirit of love toward each other and the people they serve.

Lord, as the work of this legislature goes on, help our legislators remember their place as servants. Help us all to avoid the temptation to abuse our power. Make us ever mindful of the reality that the more power we have the greater servants we must be. We ask these things as your humble children, Amen.

Prayer given by

The Reverend Craig Butler, Benton Heights Presbyterian Church
Monroe, North Carolina

Thursday, June 2, 1977

Almighty God,

before who face the generations rise and pass away, and whom many of the living have trusted and learned that thy faithfulness has no end, help us to believe Thy word when we read,

"Let your mind dwell on what is true worthy right pure amiable kindly and the God who gives peace will be with you." (Philippians 4:8,9)

In the name that is salvation and strength for all who believe. Amen.

Friday, June 3, 1977

Almighty God, when choices are many and decisions are difficult help us to remember that good character is the outcome of choosing the right rather than the wrong.

Unto the end that more and more we may hold fast to what we believe is right we pray in the words of the poet:

"Breathe on us, breath of God,
Fill us with life anew;
That we may love what Thou dost love,
And do what Thou wouldst do."

Amen

Monday, June 6, 1977

God of grace and God of glory whose presence is our power, whose love is our hope,

and whose truth is our peace,

we confess that oftimes our strain and tension are caused more by empty achievement rather than by hard work.

Because this is so, help these men and women to be selective in the issues for which they struggle, and thus keep them from the experience described by him who said, "The bitterest sorrow a man can know is to strive to do much and to do it, only to discover it wasn't worth the doing."

In the name of Him who went about, but wherever he went, always did good, Amen.

Tuesday, June 7, 1977

O Lord God, We thank Thee for these who lead this Great State — this state which you have endowed with mountains, and seacoast, and farmlands, and industry and with prosperity.

Remind us that it is good to be served but nobler, by far, as our Lord taught us, to serve. Bring to the minds of these Thy servants clarity of thought, keenness of mind, gentleness of spirit to know and to understand the issues. Help them: to make tough decisions with tender hearts, to have the conviction to stand fast when right, the grace to admit it when wrong, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Let us affirm together that for this great nation and for this great state, "the best is yet to be."

Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Prayer by Dr. Thomas E. Corts, President Wingate College

Friday, June 10, 1977

Almighty God, Friend Unseen but Presence felt, we recall the words, "It is a good thing to give thanks . . ."

This morning we thank Thee for issues that are lively and keep the telephones ringing, bills that are questionable and keep these men and women awake, debates that are heated and revealing, decisions that are difficult but mentally stimulating, results that sometimes delight and excite and sometimes call for fight against bitterness.

For all such stimulants that keep us from somnambulism we thank Thee.

Amen.

Monday, June 13, 1977

Eternal Father, strong to save, whose voice didst still the boisterous waves, these men and women have left behind the voices of their constituents, but once again they hear the voices of lobbyists and fellow legislators. In addition to those voices may they also hear the inner voices of duty, conscience and Divinity. And when the voice Divine is heard to say, "This is the way walk ye in it," may they heed and follow, and when the way doest not lead through green pastures or beside still waters, may each be able to say," The Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want."

Because these men and women are never so self-concerned as not to be other-concerned, we join in prayer for the son of Parks Helms, as surgeons minister tomorrow to him may their labor be fruitful.

We rejoice also with Mr. Michaux in his Presidential approval as United States Attorney.

Thus Lord may we ever rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep, Amen.

Tuesday, June 14, 1977

Almighty God, when we pause to pray all of us are lobbying, but we thank Thee that we are legal lobbyists for Thy word encourages us "to pray without ceasing."

We also thank Thee that Thou art wise enough to know when we are wrong, abundantly able to help us when we are right, and knowledgeable enough to endow us with a wisdom beyond our own.

In that assurance help these men and women to tackle happily, hopefully and wholesomely the great issues of the day, Amen.

Wednesday, June 15, 1977

Great God, how true it is that we are not created equal.

Some of us don't look so hot, but we can be honest, and disprove the theory that you can judge a man by his looks.

Some may not know much, but we can prove that we are not as ignorant as we look.

Some may not be able to speak decisively or forcefully, but we can be so truthful that our faltering speech is believed.

Some may think they have scant power, but each member of this House has a button — and that vote is power.

Whatever we have, help us to use it so wisely and well that there are peace and joy within each one. Amen.

Thursday, June 16, 1977

Our most gracious heavenly Father. We are most grateful for the opportunity you have given to all of us to serve you and the people of this State. Please keep us forever mindful that we are here as your representative to serve all your people in the best possible manner.

Father, as this session draws to a close many of us are tired and our temperament not what it should be. Please help us to say and do the right things, remembering that friendship and love of each other is more important than winning or losing a particular battle.

Father, you have been so good to all of us. Never let us forget that our real purpose in life is to serve you and that service to humanity is the best work of life!

In your name we pray, Amen.

Prayer by Representative James F. Morgan

Friday, June 17, 1977

Great Father, Good Friend, we thank Thee that we cannot put into practice the words of him who said, "Stop the world, I want to get off."

As these men and women accept the unvarying rhythm of life, life and death success and failure

joy and tears,

help them to have the faith of the ancient apostle who wrote:

"I have learned in whatsoever state I am therewith to be content.
I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound.
I can do all things through Him who strengthens me."

Amen

Monday, June 20, 1977

Lord of life beneath the dome of the universe Thy home, we thank Thee that Thou hast given to each man and woman here a mind with which to think and a will with which to resolve.

We recognize, our Father, that in the distribution of Thy gifts some minds are stronger than others; may the strong use their minds to benefit the weak.

But each person here has the ability to resolve; may each member of this House resolve on the basis of that which is in principle excellent rather than in politices expedient. Amen.

Tuesday, June 21, 1977

Great God from whom all blessings flow, there are those who will thank Thee after last night's vote that they can still do, as well as sing, "Tenting tonight on the old camp ground."

We thank Thee for men and women of this House who fight hard on all issues and who can win without boasting and who can lose without bitterness. May their number increase.

Grant to each member of this governing body the peace whose source is not evasion or neglect or indifference but the knowledge of work well done; more and more may they know that peace which at day's end leads to blessed rest. Amen.

Wednesday, June 22, 1977

Great God, we thank Thee for your amazing grace, your astounding patience and your astonishing love.

We thank Thee that the whole calendar is not a "consent calendar," for a consent calendar is like eating jello — there isn't much thrill to it. We thank Thee for meaty, gutty issues that challenge the mind, stir debate,

and require conviction.

Give to all who share in the deliberations of the day a zeal for the truth,

a joy and brevity in expressing it, and a thril lin voting for it.

And at day's end may each member of this House know that blessed rest that comes from having adhered to what he or she believes is right. Amen.

Thursday, June 23, 1977

Sovereign God, we thank Thee that Thou art just as near to us in this chamber as you are in our synagogues and churches. We recall the Psalmist (139) who said, "If I ascend up to heaven Thou art there, if I make my bed in hell Thou art there."

As these men and women live with partial solutions and irritating postponements, help them to remember what is written:

"And let us not get tired of doing what is right, for after a while we will reap a blessing
if we don't get discouraged and give up." (Galatians 6:9)

And may we believe it, because the promise is yours and not man's. Amen.

Friday, June 24, 1977

Almighty God,

eternal and merciful patient and compassionate, may our public utterances speak well for private thought, for we remember it is written, "as a man thinketh in his heart so is he."

We thank Thee for all the help we receive from Thy word, but may we never use that word as a drunk uses a lamppost — for support rather than illumination.

Keep us mindful that Thy word is to be "a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path," Amen.

Monday, June 27, 1977

Great God, we thank Thee that Thou changest not, that Thou art the same today as you were on Friday, "able to do exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think."

In hectic days help us to remember that there are worse things than being "rushed to death"; enable us to see that it is worse never to be rushed for things worthwhile, and then live a life of selfishness, emptiness and boredom. Amen.

Tuesday, June 28, 1977

In this day that Thou hast made help us, O God, to enjoy its beauties and to use aright its opportunities.

As the members of this House confront the waning of this Session may they diligently strive to prove that they are men and women who believe in hoeing to the end of the row.

Thus by their diligence may known wrongs be repaired and promises yet unkept be fulfilled. Amen.

Wednesday, June 29, 1977

Sovereign God, eternal yet contemporary, we come to Thee because anything big enough to cause concern is big enough to pray about.

We thank Thee that in this Chamber every legislator has the privilege of speaking his or her mind. May they also have the grace to listen carefully to the opinions of others because nothing stimulates the mind more than the contradiction of our own thoughts.

We pray in the name of Him who has promised a peace that nothing outward can rob or destroy, Amen.

Thursday, June 30, 1977

Sovereign God, Thou who art as good as you are gracious, as these men and women in assembled session endeavour to be "voices rather than echoes" enable them to recall the words:

"The Lord is my light and my salvation,
whom then shall I fear?"

When there is temptation to be sarcastic, impatient or imprudent may each one pray,

"Make the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart acceptable in Thy sight."

When there is weariness, help the weary to pray:

"Revive me again, fill my heart with Your love,
May my soul be rekindled with fire from above."

When issues create tension and the atmosphere is glum help someone to remember:

"A cheery heart doeth good like medicine."

And when the duties are demanding and taxing and seemingly overwhelming, enable each one to recall that this is easier than stripping tobacco, chopping cotton,

making hay,
teaching school,
picking peaches,
trying to prove someone innocent when everyone knows he is a fourteen-carat gold scoundrel, diagnosing ills and writing prescriptions, operating a competitive business, or even, Lord, preaching to the pious.

Help us to remember and then to say, "I got it good, Lord. Thanks." Amen.

Friday, July 1, 1977

Almighty God,

our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
and strength and wisdom sufficient for the demands and duties of this day.

We ask Thee to confirm and complete all that has been done which is right and good, and to forgive and overrule all that has been done which ought not to have been done or all that was left undone which ought to have been done.

On this special day we recall the words of a man who said there are four important days in a person's life — birth, confirmation, marriage and death; we believe if he had ever served in a General Assembly he would have added another important day — the day a stated session of the Assembly lumbers to its close. But we know that these men will miss the camaraderie, the sharing, the discussion and the arguing.

In days to come as they live with the fruits of their labors may there be much for which they can hold their heads high and very little they have to deny. Amen.

ADDENDUM

It will be noted that a number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and then were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 41(b) states:

> No bill shall be read more than once in the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds (⅔) of the members present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which had passed its second reading is read a third time except:

(1) When a member moves that the Rule be suspended, and this motion carries by at least a two-thirds vote of the members present.

(2) When the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present. This constitutes unanimous consent of those members present that Rule 41(b) be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time.
